2 Egyptian Fighters Shot Down, Israel Reports as Conflict Grows

Forces Attack Fortifications In Gaza Strip

Foreign Office Claims Defense Made Against 'Active War' by Egypt

JERUSALEM (AP)—Fighting flared furiously along the Gaza front today.

Israel announced two of her jets downed two Egyptian fighters and, on the ground, her forces blew up an Egyptian military headquarters inside the battle-scarred coastal area.

An Israeli army spokesman said the Egyptian Vampire jets were patrolling over Israeli territory when the Israeli pilots engaged them. He said both Egyptian pilots were killed.

Over Israeli Territory

The dogfight reportedly occurred near the Jewish settlement of Yad Mordeohai three miles north of the Egyptian-held Gaza Strip.

The spokesman said the wreckage of both planes came down inside Israeli territory.

It was the second reported air encounter between Egypt and Israel since the 1948 Palestine War.

Two Israeli planes clashed briefly Monday with four Egyyptian Vampires. An Israeli spokesman said one of the Vampires was hit, but authorities in Cairo said there were no casualties.

The Israeli Foreign Office described Wednesday night's ground raid against Egypt's Khan Yunis encampment as defense against "active warfare" by Egypt. A spokesman said armor and troops punched through the frontier lines to wipe out a base "Egyptian terrorists" were using to launch attacks against Israel.

Blow Up Headquarters

"After blowing up the headquarters building, our forces returned toward Israel. Our casualties were one killed and eight wounded," a statement reported.

The attack came after the Jews said they would not join Egypt in a U.N.-sponsored cease-fire unless the Egyptians shouldered blame for the past week's stepped-up violence along the Gaza frontier. At Arrow points to the historied Gaza area, where bloody border clashes and killings have flared between Israel and Egypt since 1948, and have been renewed with increasing fury in the past few weeks. Gaza was 1,500 years old at the dawn of the Christian era, and has felt the trample of conquering armies through its 3,500-year history.

Cairo Denies Two Planes Shot Down

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—An Egyptian spokesman denied that Israeli planes shot down two Egyptian fighters early today in the Gaza area. He said the two planes collided during a dawn reconnaissance flight in heavy clouds and both crashed.

Earlier Israeli sources said two Israeli planes had shot down two Egyptian jets in a dog fight over Israel. The Israeli spokesman said both Egyptian pilots had been killed.

The Egyptian spokesman added that later this morning Egyptian planes met Israeli planes over Gaza and chased them. All Egyptian planes returned safely to their bases, he added.

Gunman Found Slain; Indicted For '53 Murder

Eggleston, Connected With Oilman's Killing, Dumped in Texas Well

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Police found the body of gunman-gambler Leroy (Tincy) Eggleston, 49, in a shallow well six miles north of here Wednesday night. He had been shot in the back of the head.

His death left alive only two of the principals in the slay-for-pay murder of wealthy oilman William P Clark, 61, found dead in his expensive home May 22, 1953.

The remaining principals are Clark's blonde widow Mary, 46, and Harry Huggins, the 47-year-old mobster-informer who said Mrs. Clark offered a $10,000 reward for her husband's death.

Eggleston's body was found less than a week after his blood-stained sedan turned up on a parking lot here.

Another Mobster Slain

Another mobster named by Huggins and the police in the Clark killing, Cecil Green, 49, was slain in a gangland ambush last May 4 when he and Eggleston drove up to a highway rendezvous. Eggleston shot his way out of the trap and was found, scared and shaking, hours later in a nearby building. He had been reported in hiding until his disappearance but underworld sources said he "was still busy."

Eggleston, the source said, stayed busy milking gamblers, burglars, safe men and others of part of their hauls, giving them the alternative of losing all of their take

First Believed Suicide

Oilman Clark was found May 22, 1953, shot to death in his palatial 22-room home. Police first called it suicide but Huggins broke the case wide open in April 1955 with his story of Mrs. Clark's reward offer.

Just 12 days before his body was found, the oilman had petitioned for annulment of his marriage to the shapely blonde, saying

Rise in Polio Cases Believed 'Seasonal'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A total of 2,279 new polio cases was reported to the Public Health Service last week, the highest weekly total for this year.

For the first time since June 4, the 1955 weekly total exceeded the comparable figure for a 1954 week.

However, a health service spokesman said last week's increase of about 6.6 per cent over the 2,138 cases reported in the week ended Aug. 20 was "seasonal" and "just about what could be expected at this time of the year."

New Contract Signed Ending 6-Hour Chrysler Corp. Strike

Workers Go Back to Jobs In Six States

Pact Follows Pattern Set by Ford and GM In 'Big Three' Lineup

DETROIT (AP) —Chrysler Corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers reached a contract settlement today, six hours after widespread strikes hit Chrysler plants in six states.

The UAW immediately sent out back-to-work orders to all unions locals. There were indications, however, that work disruptions among Chrysler's 139,000 employes would mar production throughout the day.

Modeled on Others

The settlement was modeled closely after Ford and General Motors agreements reached in June. It completed the lineup of the auto industry's "Big Three" companies on revolutionary, new layoff pay plans.

Like the Ford and GM plans, the Chrysler agreement will guarantee laid off workers 60 to 65 per cent of regular take-home pay for up to 26 weeks of idleness.

It also provides wage increases of 6 cents an hour to all employes for each of the three years of the contract, and up to 38 cents immediately for some workers in skilled classifications.

Other Provisions

Also included in the new agreement were clauses to:

1. Boost pension benefits up to a maximum of about $250 a month, including social security.

2. Eliminate wage differentials between the Detroit area, biggest concentration of Chrysler workers, and other parts of the country. Chrysler said it thus became the

Westinghouse Orders Cut in Fair Trade List

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. today disclosed it will discontinue immediately "fair trade" list prices on electric housewares and automatic bed coverings.

John J. Anderson, manager of portable appliances, said Westinghouse however will continue to have suggested retail prices and suggested dealer prices.

"It is our belief," said Anderson, "that the public will recognize the value of a quality product displayed attractively and priced fairly.

"Actually we believe in fair trade but under the present conditions it is not workable. As conditions change in the future our price policy may also change."

He added:

"We believe in the manufacture of a quality product sold through good, reliable distributors and dealers. The buying public will always recognize and buy a good product at reasonable prices."

Electrical housewares in the announcement include: Roaster ovens, fry pan, 'cook & fivers; mixers, toaster, coffee maker, grill and waffle irons, hot plate rotisserie, and heating pads. Also automatic bed coverings include three deluxe automatic blankets, three standard automatic blankets and an automatic sheet.

Under the fair trade law, if one dealer agrees to abide by it, then every other dealer is automatically bound not to sell the product for less than the fair trade price.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Proper riding of bicycles and motor scooters will be taught Gainesville schoolchildren this fall. The course is sponsored by the Gainesville Citizens Safety Council.

PERONISTAS MASS NEAR GOVERNMENT HOUSE. Pro-Peron demonstrators mass near Government House in Buenos Aires to protest the offered resignation of Juan D. Peron as president of Argentina. Peron told his followers he would resign if that would guarantee "pacification" of the nation.

Withdraws Resignation

Peron Tightens His Grip on Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Juan D. Peron tightened a firm new grip on Argentina today, warning grimly that opposition violence will be met by "action still more violent."

He told a well-organized demonstration of many thousands Wednesday night he was withdrawing his offer to step down as president. Earlier Wednesday, he had announced he would resign if it would guarantee "pacification" of the nation.

Speaking before the wildly cheering throng in the central Plaza de Mayo, he said it was clear his opponents "do not want the pacification we have offered them."

Only Two Roads

"There remain only two roads: for the government, a repression adjusted to the subversive actions; for the people, an action, a struggle which matches the violence to which they want to carry us," he said.

"We have to answer violence with greater violence. And when one of our people falls, five of them will fall."

Dominating the 10-hour demonstration were Peron's General Confederation of Labor (CGT)—the popular basis of this strength—and the men's and women's Peronista parties. The army, which had saved Peron from the unsuccessful June 16 revolt and kept him in office, was conspicuously absent from the vast crowd.

The first announcement that Peron had offered to resign was broadcast Wednesday morning by Hugo di Pietro, CGT secretary. The announcement touched off a general strike by the labor group and a call for mass demonstrations.

The resignation offer was not submitted to Congress—the normal procedure—nor was there any announcement of it from any government office.

Planned in Advance

There were no reports of major violence during or after the demonstrations. Near the city of Tucuman, however, a low-hanging electric cable sliced through a crowd of Peronistas riding on top of a train to a party rally. Seven were killed and 37 injured.

The Plaza de Mayo demonstration—obviously prepared to reject Peron's resignation offer—thrust the powerful CGT into the spotlight again. The labor organization had appeared to take a back seat in

Pastor Cleared After Trial by Lutheran Jury

Synod Holds Second Secret Heresy Hearing In Wisconsin District

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The second heresy trial in the history of the northwest synod of the United Lutheran Church Wednesday night found the young pastor of a small town church innocent but asked administrative action to correct what it called "this offensive situation."

The Rev. John Gerberding, 33, pastor of Holy Cross Church at Menomonee Falls in adjoining Waukesha County, was found innocent in the secret trial on seven charges and the eighth charge was set aside. The decision, by a trial board of seven pastors, was unanimous.

Surprised at Verdict

Rev. Gerberding, who pleaded innocent to the charges of deviating from official church doctrine, said he was "surprised" by the verdict. He was reached at his home several hours after the decision was read to him in the hearing room and stated he "did not expect unanimous acquittal."

Gerberding said he has not changed any of his opinions "and was not asked to."

The committee did not ask specifications but placed that in the hands of Dr. Paul E. Bishop of Minneapolis, synod president. Dr. Bishop, reached by telephone at his home, said he would have no comment until he saw the official decision.

First Held in July

The first heresy trial in the 65 years of the synod was held in July and found the Rev. George P. Crist, 31, guilty on 9 of 14 counts of doctrinal deviation. Pastor Crist, of Durham in Waukesha County, was suspended from his pulpit. The trial actions are subject to review by the synod convention. Penalty under conviction ranges from a rebuke to defrocking. Pastor Crist pleaded innocent.

Pastor Gerberding was accused of "denying the divine authority of the Holy Scriptures, holding and teaching that the doctrine of the virgin birth of Mary was unimportant and 'need not be interpreted as literal fact,' denying the physical resurrection of Jesus, the historicity and actuality of the visible ascension of Jesus and a number of His recorded miracles, denying the efficacy of intercessory prayer and the sacramental union of the Lord's Supper."

Government Releases New Batch of Vaccine

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service today released 3,348,000 cubic centimeters of Salk polio vaccine for children ages five through nine.

This was the third and largest allocation to the states and territories of new vaccine under the voluntary control plan started on July 31.

U.S. May Withdraw

Japan To Build Up Its Defense Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ten years after he signed Japan's World War II surrender, Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu had from the United States today a promise to consider "the progressive withdrawal" of American ground forces from Japan.

The 68-year-old career diplomat did not get all he sought in three days of talks that ended here Wednesday. But he declared he was "quite satisfied" with the outcome.

Today he headed for New York for a four-day visit, before returning to Tokyo.

100,000 Troops in Japan

The United States now has about 100,000 troops in Japan. It would like to take them out, but not until it thinks Japan is strong ehough to defend itself.

No target date for withdrawal was set in the agreement announced after Shigemitsu's final talks with Secretary of State Dulles Wednesday. However, it was learned that Japanese-American conferences on a time schedule will soon open in Tokyo.

Shigemitsu outlined a provisional six-year rearmament plan to increase Japan's present 150,000-man army to 180,000 by the end of 1958. U.S. military authorities think Japan should have a 350,000-man ground force for adequate defense.

The Japanese defense plan also calls for a 1,300-plane air force by 1960 and a 125,000-ton navy by 1961. There was no mention of withdrawal of U.S. air or naval forces from Japan.

Agree on Policy

But the two governments agreed that "primary responsibility" for the defense of Japan's homeland should be handed over to Japan along with its ability to "contribute to the preservation of peace and security in the Western Pacific."

In effect this met Shigemitsu's call for greater independence in handling Japan's defense affairs.

But it also put in writing that Japan should share in the collective security of the Far Pacific.

Shigemitsu and Dulles also agreed to work on a formula for a "progressive reduction" over several years of Japan's financial support of U.S. forces there. Japan's expense this year is 105 million dollars.

Other Issues Held Off

On other points Shigemitsu broached here he did not fare too well:

1. The United States declined to make any commitment to return Okinawa and the remaining Ryukyu and Bonin islands to Japanese sovereignty.

2. The United States did not consider it timely to relax restrictions on trade with Communist China.

3. There was no mass release as asked by Shigemitsu of the 210 Japanese war criminals convicted by U.S. war crimes tribunals and held in Sugamo Prison. The United States did not depart from its practice of considering each case individually.

The State Department announced that 22 prisoners—about 10 per cent of the total—have been granted a parole after consideration by the U.S. Clemency and Parole Board for War Criminals.

Year's 'Layoff' To End

Stevenson Picks October For Political Comeback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson returns to the political platform this fall with Wisconsin and New York appearances which may precede a November announcement in Chicago that he wants the Democratic party presidential nomination again.

A Democratic National Committee spokesman said today Stevenson will resume party activity after a self-enforced layoff since last year with a speech at the Wisconsin Democratic State Convention in Greenbay Oct. 7-9.

Will Join Others

The 1952 nominee will then join former President Truman and New York's Gov. Averell Harriman for what may be a significant appearance at a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner in New York City Oct. 31.

Stevenson also has been booked as one of the speakers, along with Truman and other party leaders, at a meeting of national committee members and state chairmen in Chicago Nov. 17-19.

A Stevenson supporter said that while there might be some "raised eyebrows" at the choice of a party committee dinner for the occasion, he sees no reason why the former Illinois governor should not announce in the Stockyards Amphitheater site where he was nominated in 1952 that he is available again.

Takes Added Significance

Stevenson's New York appearance took on added significance when it was learned that he, Harriman and Truman had been selected personally as speakers by Carmine DeSapio, Democratic national committeeman and Tammany leader.

DeSapio has given all the signs that he is running Harriman for president. Harriman has said he is for Stevenson but few party associates have any doubt he would become quickly available for the nomination if he thought Stevenson couldn't make the grade.

Penn State University took the other two classes.

The Keystone state thus piled up all the honors in competition with Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Kentucky breeders, 24 of which entered 259 sheep.

The winners divided $2,775 in prize money, and Green Meadow Farms also won the Fair Hamp-

Navy Releases Picture Taken 100 Miles High

Area From Mexico City To Omaha Recorded; Shot From Rocket Ship

WASHINGTON (AP)—A composite picture showing probably the largest expanse of earth ever photographed from one spot at one time was released Wednesday by the Navy.

Taken last October at an altitude of about 100 miles, the picture covers an area bordered on the west by Mexico City and the Pacific Ocean and on the east by Littl Rock, Ark., and Omaha, Neb.—an area roughly two-fifths the size of continental United States.

It was shot from a camera contained in the nose of a two-stage Aerobee rocket, fired from the White Sands, N. M., Proving Grounds. The Navy said the composite photograph was contructed from 310 prints of 16 millimeter color motion picture film.

The picture embraces a total 1¼ million square miles. It shows, too, what the Navy declared as probably the first complete hurricane ever photographed. The disturbance had a diameter of some 1,000 miles, centered far over Del Rio, Tex.

Parts of nine states and the whole of Texas are included in the composite, which has a horizon 2,800 miles long.

The Aerobee rocket is made for the Navy by the Aerojet-General Corp., of Azusa, Calif. It is 22 feet long and 15 inches in diameter. The Naval Research Laboratory, which conducted the operation, has been using these two-stage rockets since 1948 in its research program designed to unlock secrets of the upper atmosphere.

The height from which the picture was taken is close to one-half the altitude at which the recently-announced earth satellite will travel in its orbit around the globe. This basketball-sized sphere, the White House announced in July is slated for launching sometime between July 1957, and December 1958. It is intended to circle the earth between 200 and 300 miles up.

Mark 50th Anniversary

On Sunday, Sept. 4, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dutton Sr. of LaRue will observe their golden wedding anniversary. Open house will be held at their home on Front St. in LaRue from 2 to 5 p.m.

They were married on Sept. 9, 1905, in the LaRue Baptist parsonage, by the late Rev. J. A. Sutton, who was serving the Baptist church as pastor at that time. At the time of their marriage, they made their home in Marion, where Mr. Dutton was employed as a blacksmith in the old Marion Steam Shovel Co. Two years later they moved to LaRue to the home where they now reside and Mr. Dutton opened a blacksmith shop which he has continued through the years, adding a garage and general repair shop in 1917. He has been engaged in the blacksmith trade since he was 15 years of age.

Mr. Dutton is the son of James and Barbara Longberry Dutton and was born on May 7, 1882, in Bowling Green Township.

Mrs. Dutton, Loa Ethel Worline, was born on June 20, 1887, a daughter of Willis and Tabitha Redd Worline, in Delaware County on a farm which had been in possession of the family for five generations. She is a direct descendent of the pioneer Cole family of Delaware County.

Mrs Dutton had been employed in the LaRue School cafeteria since 1937, retiring at the close of the school year in May, 1955.

Pool To Be Closed At 'Y' Next Week For Minor Repairs

The Marion YMCA physical department will be closed Tuesday through Saturday of next week, the "Y" announced today.

It is being closed while the pool is drained for minor repairs for the first time since the new "Y" was opened. The health club and showers will be open, however, while the pool draining project is being completed, the "Y" explained.

At the same time, a "Y" spokesman announced that the YMCA Leaders Club would meet for the first time Tuesday night at 7:30. All members along with those interested in joining the club but who have not registered yet are invited to attend the meeting.

From Aswan in southern Egypt to the Nile Delta, the banks of the river are settled and cultivated to a depth of only about 10 miles back from the shores.

Paris Fashions Offering Everything From A to Y

Latest Creations by Dior Almost Certain To Please Women

PARIS (AP)—Two directly opposed silhouettes have come out of Paris fall fashion openings this season, and oddly enough buyers claim to like them both.

Clearly earmarked for immediate success is Dior's Y line, which returns to the normal bosom, small natural waistline (sometimes belted) and stem-slim skirt. Allowing for inevitable variations, most of the big name houses have fallen in with the Dior faction.

But at the other extreme is the Balenciaga - Givenchy shapeless silhouette with no waistline at all. A few other houses showed the semi-fitted suits that are a timid offspring of this line.

OF COURSE, it was Balenciaga who first started fooling with the waistline — remember middies?— and for some seasons, all Paris, including Dior, have strung along. This year, just as the tide seems to be turning, Balenciaga has won a convert who outdoes the maestro himself.

Young Hubert de Givenchy's new collection is more wholeheartedly devoted to the long, looseline than even Balenciaga's. For the first time in many seasons, the latter allowed some softening influence to creep in. In an absent-minded moment, he even fitted a few waistlines where nature put them.

But Balenciaga is too stubborn to give up an ideal, and his long tunic-tops gathered into a band above the knee prove it. They are close kin to Givenchy's drawstring-bag attire.

IT'S EASY to see why Givenchy's mad shape collection amused the fashion writers but pleased the buyers. Foreign buyers always are looking for different ideas in Paris, even eccentric ones, and Givenchy gave them a bag full.'

Some got rather nervous though when other designers, notably Fath, Lanvin - Castillo, Balmain and even Dior, plumped for the normal waistline.

With Balenciaga's show windin& up the season for major houses, they could draw a sigh of relief. In the battle of sacks versus sex appeal, sacks may be slipping but they haven't lost the decision while they still have an old champion like Balenciaga and a shiny new knight like Givenchy.

Dior's latest letter for the alphabet soup he makes of fashion has just enough of his former tulip line to avoid being revolutionary. True, he has given up flattening bosoms—and sales resistance must have had something to do with it—but he doesn't go to the other extreme either.

INCIDENTALLY, if Dior insists on sticking to the alphabet for inspiration, we'd all better look sharp while the symmetrical letters still last.

He has already used the H, the A and now the Y. Presumably, we can all be human beanpoles when the I line comes along. Don't worry, Dior always invents a girdle to get you in shape and he'll do it again, even if he has to use lead piping.

The same foundation, with a train attached, will do for his L collection. The T will be easy after that; you just add shoulderboards. A wide - brimmed hat would do just as well, but Dior doesn't include the head in his silhouette

But once the designer has run through X—wide top, wasp waist, wide skirt—and possibly V—wide shoulders, no waist, hobble hem—what, oh what, will he do with the M and the W?

SHOULDERS COME BACK. Jean Patou shows this straight and simple tailleur in beige Orlon jersey in his Paris collection for fall. Shoulder padding gives new width at the top, in a silhouette which barely indicates the waistline, similar to Dior's new Y line emphasizing the narrow slimness of the skirt. Matching jersey hat completes picture.

Y LINE. This is the newest of Christian Dior's alphabetical silhouettes—a bloused middy top over a skin-tight skirt, done in white Orlon and silk satin.

VARIED STYLES. Paris' fashion centers are being watched throughout the world as the city's leading designers introduce their new feminine wearing creations.

LEFT. This sports outfit in brown heathertone tweed adds a light touch in matching gaiters and a blouse in beige orlon jersey. It was designed by Madeleine de Rauch.

RIGHT. This costume of ice-white orlon and silk satin has a mink lined and collared coat over an unbelted sheath. It was designed at the Lanvin-Castillo center.

Open House Held At Galion Center

GALION—The display of handicraft work and an exhibit of activities held during the summer session were features of the open house at the Galion Day Child Care Center Wednesday night

The garage at the center has been wallboarded for use of the pupils who engage in handicraft work under the supervision of Charles Beegle, a graduate student at Ohio State University where he is working on his master's degree.

Approximately 50 visitors were received during the open house hours. Mrs. Sara Beegle, director of the Galion Day Child Care Center, staff members, trustees, parents and members of the Advisory Council were receptionists for the open house.

Refreshments were served by a committee of parents with Mrs. Sam Little and Mrs. Don Rinehart in charge.

Fruit requires less sugar if the sweetener is added at the end of cooking time.

Has Plenty of Worries

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — In French his name means "without worry."

But Raymond A. Sans Souci, 17, of Pawtucket, R.I., had something to worry about today.

He began serving a 10-year prison term for the June 30th robbery of a dancing school operator here.

Supermarket Near City Is Entered During Night

Over 400 cartons of cigarettes were taken from the IGA Foodliner Supermarket south of Marion on Route 4 in a break-in there sometime Tuesday night, it was reported to the sheriff's office Wednesday by Eddie Albright, co-manager.

Entry was gained by breaking a window glass, opening the window and then entering the store through the window to unlatch rear doors. It is believed that the cigarettes were loaded into a car or small truck at the rear of the building.

Harvard University libraries contain nearly six million volumes.

Takes Military Leave

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard A. Ports will take a military leave of absence from the staff of Rep. Bow (R-Ohio) to join the Marine Corps in late September, Bow announced today.

Ports has worked for Bow for the past year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen K. Ports of (1664 South Seneca Ave.) Alliance.

Women's Stockings Given Added Color

NEW YORK (UP) — Feminine gams will glow with color this fall. But it'll be a subdued hue.

The new stockings are dyed such shades as emerald green, orange red, midnight blue and plum purple. Some also have been given the iridescent treatment—sparked with green and gold undertones and supposed to change color with the change of costume shade.

The National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers says this season will be the first in which the industry has tried the deeper shades. Pastel blues, pinks, yellows and greens have been a specialty item for several seasons.

The reason for the new shades—to give a woman what fashion experts call the "one color look," with all accessories blending instead of contrasting with a dress or suit. Say a woman has a midnight blue dress: she wears midnight blue stockings.

But the association assures the wearer the blue will be a subtle shade—the skin tone of the leg will subdue the hue.

Tips Given for Cleaning Of Oil Paintings at Home

MADISON, Wis. (UP) — Oil paintings can be cleaned at home if care is used, says Byron Jorns, artist at the University of Wisconsin.

Remove the canvas from the frame and place it on a soft pillow to prevent cracking the paint surface.

If the picture is new and does not have a coat of varnish, the surface can be washed gently with a lukewarm soap suds. Jorns said care should be used not to rub hard or flood the picture with water.

Suds should be removed by using a cloth moistened with clear water. Next apply boiled linseed oil with a soft, lintless cloth or better yet, a dull finish mastic varnish.

For old paintings with a coat of varnish that is beginning to discolor, the best metod of cleaning is with commercial cleaners, Jorns said. Most art stores carry them.

Butcher Wins 'Beef'

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Butcher John Ulrich, 58, was awarded $6,990.40 in state compensation court for injuries suffered when struck by a piece of beef. And it was not on the hoof.

Ulrich was struck on the shoulder by a heavy slab of beef when it slipped off a hook in the cooling plant where he was employed. He suffered a ruptured tendon in his right arm, causing partial loss of use of the limb.

Slaying Sparks Racial Troubles In Mississippi

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP) — The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People says Mississippi "has decided to maintain white supremacy by murdering children."

The statement came after the body of Emmitt Louis Till, 15-year-old Chicago Negro, was found in Tallahatchie River 12 miles north of the Money community Wednesday.

A sheriff's deputy said the boy had been shot in the head shortly after he was abducted from an uncle's home after reportedly making "ugly remarks" to a white woman in her husband's store at Money.

Face Murder Charge

Already charged with kidnaping were Roy Bryant, the storekeeper, and his halfbrother, J. W. Gilam of Glendora. Sheriff George Smith of Leflore County said they would be charged with murder.

Smith said Bryant admitted taking the boy from his uncle's home, but said Till was released later unharmed.

Shortly after the body was found, Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins of the NAACP in New York issued his statement charging white supremacy by murder.

In Chicago, Till's mother, Mrs. Mamie Bradley, sobbed, "The entire State of Mississippi is going to pay for this."

Till's body was found by a fisherman.

Sheriff H. C. Strider of Tallahatchie County said "We don't know where the crime was committed."

2 Other Slayings Cited

At Tuskegee, Ala., Tuskegee Institute planned to investigate the Till death together with two other Mississippi slayings which, the famed school said, might be classed as lynchings.

No lynchings have been officially recorded by Tuskegee Institute in its annual report since 1951.

Tentatively listed as lynchings by Tuskegee and still under investigation are the deaths earlier this year in Mississippi of two other Negroes—George W. Lee and Lamar D. Smith.

For the first time since the lynch reporting system was organized by Tuskegee in the 1890's, no lynchings were recorded in the nation in 1952.

None was reported again in 1953, and Tuskegee abandoned the report in 1954 after another lynch-free year because it was no longer considered a barometer of race relations in the United States.

Both Lee and Smith had been active in seeking to qualify Negroes to vote in Mississippi.

Lee, about 51, was driving his automobile in Blezoni, Miss., May 7 when fatally wounded by a shotgun blast from another car.

Smith, about 63, was shot to death in August on the lawn of the Lincoln County Courthouse at Brookhaven.

2 Galion Boys Burned In Try To Light Fusee

GALION — Two Galion boys escaped serious injury Wednesday afternoon when their clothes caught fire as they were attempting to light a railroad fusee in an alley between Church and Primrose Sts. near the Quality Cleaners.

Ronald Britton, 11, and Thomas Britton, 13, sons of Mrs. Evelyn Britton of Galton, were treated for burns and released from Galion Community Hospital. Ronald suffered second degree burns on his right leg and his older brother was slightly burned on his legs and arm.

The boys apparently were trying to light powder in a railroad fusee about 3 p.m. Wednesday when a third boy knocked over a can of oil. The match, which the Britton boys were using, set fire to the spilled oil. They were able to extinguish the fire, but suffered minor burns.

Waldo Firemen Receive New Truck

Chrysler

first big auto company to do this. Chrysler has plants in Michigan, Indiana, California, Delawafe, Kansas and Georgia.

3. Improve hospital - medical and insurance coverage.

4. Liberalize non-economic portions of the contract, which among other things gives the union for the first time the right to strike over production standards.

A dispute over the effective dates of the layoff pay plan and other economic benefits snagged the settlement beyond the midnight strike deadline and until dawn.

Method of Settlement

This is how that dispute was settled:

Chrysler will begin paying into a layoff pay plan trust fund as of today, three months after Ford and General Motors started their contributions. But benefits will become available next June 1, the same as at Ford and GM.

The first of the 6-cent "annual improvement factor" raises will be payable as of today, the second next April 1, and the third on June 1, 1957. The new contract will expire June 1, 1958.

Neither Chrysler nor the UAW would put a specific price tag on the settlement. But Robert W. Conder, Chrysler vice president, said it would be in proportion with the Ford agreement, which was estimated to cost 55 million dollars for each of the next three years. The Ford and GM settlements were labeled as 20-cent an hour "packages" by the UAW.

All three companies had an average hourly wage of about $2.10 when the current round of negotiations began.

Separate Office Plan

About 8,000 Chrysler office workers who are UAW members will be covered by a separate layoff pay plan similar to the one which will cover 131,000 Chrysler production workers.

Picket lines had been set up at many Chrysler plants before the settlement was reached. With the new Chrysler-UAW contract, came assurance of peace for the major segment of the auto industry. The "Big Three" now have signed three-year pacts, leaving only the independents to deal with the UAW.

Negotiations headed toward a climax at American Motors with the Chrysler signing. The UAW's contract there expires at midnight tonight. There have been reports that a showdown at American Motors was held up pending developments at Chrysler.

Studebaker Plant Struck

The Studebaker division of Studebaker-Packard Corp. was shut by a strike in South Bend, Ind., today. Members of Studebaker Local 5 of the UAW overrode recommendations of their officers and voted against extending their contract past Wednesday midnight. Union leaders had recommended day-to-day extension during negotiations. South Bend Studebaker plants employ 9,000.

Bendix Aviation Corp. and the UAW were continuing negotiations in Detroit, with 20,000 out in Bendix plants in five states.

Escapee Recaptured

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—A 19-year-old Columbus youth who escaped from Mansfield Reformatory where he was serving 10-25 years for armed robbery was captured by London police at the Madison County Fairgrounds last night. Police said they arrested Jerry Reagan as he sat in a car they reported was stolen from Ashland. Reagan was working in a construction gang on Ohio 13, three miles north of Mansfield when he escaped Tuesday, authorities said.

Dealers Flayed For Failing To Exhibit Wares

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche today criticized Ohio implement dealers for failure to show their wares at the Ohio State Fair.

Speaking at the start of the fat cattle sale, Lausche said implement dealers "gathered and made agreements among themselves not to show here."

The governor said the dealers "owe it as an obligation to the farmers" to show their products at the state fair.

He said, "They are the ones who make money from the prosperity of the farmers. The farmer has been good to them."

Lausche cited some machinery exhibitors who he said "have the good conscience to be here."

"If anyone has the right to complain about the charge for space here, it is the farmer, and not the implement dealer.

"The farmer pays more per square foot to put his hogs in a pen than the implement dealers do to exhibit there."

The governor urged the implement dealers to show their products at next year's fair.

This is Governor's Day at the fair. This morning he took the first bid in the fat cattle sale, one of the show features.

Israel

least 26 Israelis and 10 Egyptians have been reported killed since last Thursday.

They agreed to the cease-fire Tuesday night.

A spokesman for the U N truce chief, Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, yesterday described the situation as "very serious." He said Burns still hoped to achieve a cease-fire.

The Israeli Foreign Office statement said last night's raid was aimed at stopping an Egyptian "campaign of aggression" which had made the 1949 Palestine agreement "virtually inoperative."

"Egypt's violations of the armistice have ceased to be an exception—they have become the daily rule," the statement declared, accusing the Egyptians of 14 attacks in the past 10 days. The statement continued:

"Egypt has openly embarked upon a course designed to destroy security and subject the Israel defense army to a constant challenge, to drive terror into the hearts of a peaceful, hard-working population over a wide area.

"From a claim to rights of belligerency, Egypt has gone over to active warfare. Warnings of the effects of this course conveyed by Israel to Egypt through all conceivable channels having proved fruitless and the scope and range of acts of aggression having assumed threatening proportions, Israel has no choice but to resort to self-defense."

Huggins, Eggleston and Green were charged with murder and later indicted. Mrs. Clark was charged as an accomplice. She has maintained she had nothing to do with her husband's death.

Huggins said he went to the Clark residence in the belief that the job was only robbery.

While he searched the house for valuables, he told police, one of his accomplices took Clark into another room. He said he heard a shot and returned to find Clark dead, a bullet hole behind an ear.

"That was part of the job," he said the triggerman—believed by police to have been Eggleston—told him.

Both Huggins and Mrs. Clark are free on bond. No trial date for either has been set.

Attendance likewise has gone up, with 364,656 fairgoers registered the first five days this year, compared with 312,781 for the same period last year.

He was then fined $100 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying a spring blade knife. Billion Dollar Surplus Sale Set by Air Force

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The Air Force announced today it plans to unload a billion dollars' worth of obsolete property in the next 10 months, most of it through disposal sales.

The Air Material Command at nearby Wright-Patterson Air Force Base said the first of the big sales will aim to dispose of about 50 million dollars' worth of surplus aircraft engines and parts.

Fire Department Men Build Their Own Truck

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (UP)—The Jamestown Fire Department, going along with the current do-it-yourself craze, recently finished building a new fire truck.

The vehicle was constructed around a used two-ton chassis at a cost of $5,000. If the department had purchased a similar fire truck it would have cost at least $15,000.

William D. Carlson, fire department maintenance supervisor, drew up the plans for the truck. Carlson, fireman Norman A. Pederson and the men at Station 2 did all the labor.

Peron

top-level political affairs since the abortive June revolt.

There was little doubt that the June 16 uprising weakened Peron's control, but with yesterday's show of strength, he appeared as strong as ever.

After the June revolt, Peron issued an appeal for "pacification," and representatives of the tiny opposition parties recently were permitted to speak over the government radio.

In his speech Wednesday night, Peron did not name his enemies, except for an occasional reference to "the oligarchs." He made no mention of the Roman Catholic church, with which the government had been feuding since last November.

Wiping tears from his eyes as he started to speak, Peron accused his opponents of breaking a truce of two months "with acts of violence."

"Their political leaders have answered with speeches as superficial as they were insolent," he declared. "Instigators with their perpetual hypocrisy, their rumors and their pamphlets . . . executioners shooting at the poor policemen in the streets.

"With our exaggerated tolerance we have won for ourselves the right to repress them violently," he asserted. "And from now on, let us establish as permanent conduct for our movement: he who in any place tries to disturb order in opposition to the constituted authorities or contrary to the law or the constitution may be slain by any Argentine.

"The order of the day for every Peronista, whether individually or as a member of an organization, is to answer a violent action with another action still more violent."

Auto and Soap Box Racer in Collision

Police today reported one accident on city streets Wednesday. Highway patrolmen reported no accidents on county highways while sheriff's deputies investigated one no-injury mishap.

The city accident involved an automobile and a Soap Box racer. It happened at the intersection of Silver and Fahey Sts. about 7:35 p.m. Mrs. Edna C. Snyder of 347 Lee St. came to the police station to report the accident. She said she was driving east on Silver St. when the Soap Box racer ridden by Bob McCurdy, 14, of 356 Fahey St. came across the intersection and struck the rear end of her car. Minor damage was done to the automobile. No report was made of damage to the racer. McCurdy was not hurt by the collision.

Auto Leaves Highway

No one was injured in one accident investigated Wednesday night by sheriff's deputies.

It occurred at 1 p.m. on Route 95 about four miles east of Marion. Charles L. Watt, 29, of 490 Oak St., told deputies he was eastbound when he was blinded by an oncoming car and went off onto the berm on the right side. He lost control of his vehicle and went off on the left side where he struck farm fence.

Damage resulted to the fence and the right rear fender of the car.

The nature of the company qualifications was not disclosed.

The union said old grievances included a dispute over graded work classifications, a demand for paid holidays and a health and welfare plan.

Recently the TWU demanded a 25-cent across-the-board wage hike, a shift differential, and reduction of the work week from 40 to 30 hours.

A union spokesman said the largest category of workers involved are carmen-mechanics, who now receive $1.96 an hour for a 40-hour week. Mechanics get $2.09½ an hour, carmen-helpers $1.86, and laborers $1.62.

Doubts Trains Will Halt

A railroad spokesman has expressed doubt that a strike by nonoperating employes would halt the Pennsylvania's trains but Quill said he had received assurances from operating employes that they would not cross TWU picket lines. The operating employes are members of the independent railroad brotherhoods.

Affected by a strike would be New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Delaware, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois, West Virginia, Michigan, and the District of Columbia.

Guilty Pleas Entered

Three Fostoria men were given suspended fines of $15 and costs each when they pleaded guilty in Marion Municipal Court Wednesday to charges of being suspicious persons. They were Clarence E. Johnson, 18, Paul H. Bixler, 19, and Nelson F. Bixler, 18. They were all arrested early Wednesday morning by city police.

'In God We Trust' By George Sokolsky

President Eisenhower approved an act passed by Congress authorizing the inscription "In God We Trust" on American currency. The law now provides that when new coins are minted or currency printed — all of it —this inscription shall appear. It is now compulsory by public law 140

SOKOLSKY

It is not usual that the currency of a country should include a religious affirmation, no matter how fitting, and I wondered where it came from. So far as it can be traced, the motto dates back to the early days of the Civil War when our people truly needed the guidance of and a trust in God.

It appears that Abraham Lincoln's secretary of the treasury, Salmon P. Chase, received a letter from the Rev. M. R. Watkinson of Ridleyville, Penn., dated Nov. 13, 1861, urging that some reference to God appear on coins.

IT MUST HAVE been a startling thought, but Abraham Lincoln was a profoundly religious man to whom such an idea would not be offensive. At any rate, at that time, secularism had not yet so corrupted American thinking that the confusion between separation of church and state and separation of man from God had affected our thinking. That is the problem of our age when secularism has become so triumphant.

So on Nov. 20, just one week later, Secretary Chase requested the director of the mint in Philadelphia, James Pollock, to prepare a device which would include the name of God on our coins.

IT TOOK THREE YEARS for authorization to go through Congress. In 1864, Congress passed an act permitting the issuance of two-cent bronze coins, upon which appeared the motto, "In God We Trust." The following year, Congress agreed to allow other coins to bear this slogan of faith. The acts were permissive, not compulsory.

Why the motto was dropped anywhere is hard to understand. It had become the granite of American thought. Undoubtedly, it was taken from "The Star-Spangled Banner" in which appear the lines:

"And this be our motto:

In god is our trust."

It was so normal to American thinking that we took it for granted and presumably most of us had overlooked it. At any rate, it was only in recent years that patriotic societies began to campaign for its restoration on our coins and currency which has now been accomplished.

Many do not believe in the externals of ritualism. They say that they have the fullness of faith in God and in our country in their hearts; they do not need to be reminded by signs and symbolism and the trappings of pomp.

RECENTLY WHEN I was discussing the absence of the flag in a public place, a very intelligent man said in opposition to my insistence upon the value of the symbolism of the flag

"And the next step after you put the flag there, someone will demand that we pledge allegience 'under God'—and then we shall have to take a loyalty oath I don't need such symbolism. I can get along without it."

Maybe he does not need the flag and the pledge of allegience and the singing of a national anthem, but most of us do need little memory-boosters, little stimulants, just enough to make us wonder.

THAT OTTO, "In God We Trust," on every coin, on every printed dollar bill, will help us over the hump of taking things for granted. It is interesting that in other countries, every theatrical performance, every concert, every public gathering either begins or ends with the singing of the national anthem. But in the United States, this seems to be offensive. Perhaps it requires too much effort.

Undoubtedly, most religions have symbols, such as the Cross, the Star of David, the Crescent—and in Soviet Russia, the Hammer and Sickle. The Ying and Yang of the Buddhists looks to us like a beautiful ornamental design, but it is really the symbolism for the creative power in the Cosmos.

Similarly, the general use of beads as prayer reminders in Buddhistic and Catholic countries are reminders of faith, not counters of prayers. It all helps us to remember that man too easily forgets. And that too often what we take for granted are the essentials of life, the fullness of our relationships to God, to country, to family.

Bids Received On 5 Projects Planned in City

Low bids on three sewer projects, one sidewalk construction job and a curb and gutter project were announced today by Safety-Service Director John Davis.

V. E. Gist of Edison was low bidder on two of the sewer projects, Davis said. He entered a bid of $4,640 on a N. Prospect St. project and one for $11,000 on a Smith St. job.

The N. Prospect St. job will consist of 2,350 feet of storm water and sanitary sewers. The Smith St. project consists of laying 2,314 feet of storm water and sanitary lines along the street.

The third sewer project was won by the Plumley Construction Co. of Marion, which entered a bid of $4,153.25 for the laying of 899 feet of sewer along Westwood Dr.

Plumley was also low bidder for the construction of a sidewalk on S. Seffner Ave. between Indiana Ave. and Mount Vernon Ave. The bid was $6,681.90.

Gist submitted the low bid on the project to improve Davids St. with curbs and gutters between Bellefontaine Ave. and Keener Ave. The bid submitted was for $5,853.

Davis said the contracts will be awarded as soon as the necessary papers can be drawn up and signed by all parties.

2 Cars Damaged, Patrolman Hurt, Driver Fails in Test

ATLANTA (AP) — Mrs. Maude Pierce took a road test for a driver's license Wednesday.

Two cars were smashed, the state patrolman giving the test was injured, and Mrs. Pierce got a traffic court summons for failing to remain in the proper traffic lane and for being involved in an accident.

Police said the 42-year-old housewife became excited while making a curve, stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake and crashed into a parked car and a utility pole. State Trooper Lloyd P. Hataway, who was giving the test, was hospitalized for head and hip injuries.

Mrs. Pierce didn't get the license.

Seneca Indians To Get Annual 'Treaty Cloth'

SALAMANCA, N. Y. (AP) — The government will make its annual distribution of "treaty cloth" tomorrow and Saturday to Indians of the Seneca Nation.

Each inhabitant will receive two yards of unbleached sheeting.

These yearly payments are required by a 1794 treaty between the United States and the Senecca Nation. The Indians twice have rejected government offers to settle the account with a lump-sum payment.

Cambridge Man Held After Wife Is Stabbed

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — A 33-year-old Cambridge man was in jail today while police investigated what they said was a stabbing of his wife and attempted suicide. They said Donald Watkins yesterday slashed his wife with a 10-inch dagger, then cut his own wrists. Mrs. Mabel Watkins was reported in fair condition at a hospital here with cuts of the left side, shoulder and eyelid. Watkins' wounds were superficial. He was released from jail Tuesday after serving a sentence of about two weeks for assault and battery on his wife, police said. They added that Mrs. Watkins had sued her husband for divorce.

Beck's Dilemma By Victor Riesel

In a suite in Chicago's Hotel Morrison three weeks ago, a group of husky men met and worked out a pact which sooner or later will thunder over the nation's highways, shake many a city and stir up the ports of this country.

VICTOR RIESEL

In that suite of rooms were virtually all the men who lead the powerful Teamsters Brotherhood and some 19 officials of the controversial International Longshoremen's Assn., about which enough movies, books and news stories have been written to fill the Smithsonian Institution.

Leading the Teamsters was the stocky, steel-muscled 42-year-old Jim Hoffa, who would be out of character if he didn't realize that he is certainly one of the two or three most influential labor leaders in the nation today—despite his formal title of ninth vice-president of the International Teamsters Brotherhood. Heading the Longshoremen's 19-man delegation was the broad-beamed Capt. William Bradley.

Missing only was the Teamsters' supreme chief, Dave Beck. He was in a hospital tussling with a kidney stone attack and the problems raised by the Hotel Morrison pact.

BEFORE WE GO into these problems, let's go into the pact. The Teamsters, with jurisdiction over everything that moves on wheels, have long had their eyes on the nation's waterfronts—which would give them terrific leverage for organizing drives in the South Atlantic and Gulf port states where there is comparatively little union strength.

For almost two years, since mid-September 1953, when the AFL convention ousted the Longshoremen's Union, the Teamsters have planned to pick up what waterfront labor they could. Now they were finally putting down on paper the agreement which would make a working ally of the independent Longshoremen's Union.

The Longshoremen, in the new pact, agreed not to affiliate with any other labor organization for 20 years, but to work with the Teamsters.

THE LONGSHOREMEN also agreed to try to plan their union contracts so that they will end on the same date on which the Teamsters' labor contracts expire. The advantage here is obvious—the Teamsters and the Longshoremen could strike at the same hour and nothing could move in or out of a port or lakeside city.

This being a mutual assistance pact, the Teamsters reportedly agreed to help the impoverished Longshoremen with a $600,000 loan—and more to come when necessary. And it will be necessary. The Longshoremen already owe John Lewis some $400,000.

Thus the Teamsters are ready to unleash an organizing drive along the coasts which will shake many a community—except for one rather important detail. The pact has to be signed—or okayed—by Dave Beck.

To Beck the decision to sign or not to sign must be as painful as his kidney stones. There is no doubt he wants to sign. There is no doubt that his people want him to sign. But signing that pact will throw Beck and the Teamsters Brotherhood into conflict with AFL President George Meany just as the AFL and the CIO begin to merge.

Signing could be the signal for warfare on the docks—which neither Beck nor Meany wants. Here's why! The AFL already has a Maritime Trades Dept. In this department is the AFL's own dockside union, the International Brotherhood of Longshoremen. Its leader is E. L. Slaughter, who doubles as secretary of the AFL's Maritime Trades Department.

THIS DEPARTMENT, backed by the national AFL, is committed to fighting the International Longshoremen's Association for control of the docks next May when the waterfront contracts expire.

Remember, too, that by next May all the CIO waterfront unions will be in the AFL, giving the AFL Longshoremen support. If Beck signs the Hotel Morrison pact, this will throw the AFL Teamsters behind the independent Longshoremen's Union, against the AFL's Longshoremen. Beck doesn't want this kind of civil war. Nor does he want to reject those of his lieutenants who drew up the Chicago pact with the independent Longshoremen.

Somebody will have to yield—but who?

Art of Worrying By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Now is the time to get yourself a fresh new worry.

Worry is a sign of civilization, and anyone without a worry has out a worry has a guilty feeling that he has turned into a barbarian.

HAL BOYLE

To be in style you have to be a phobophile—that is, a worry wart, a guy who likes to find things to be afraid of. But this isn't as easy as it used to be.

It has been getting harder and harder to find anything to worry about in America ever since Franklin D. Roosevelt declared in 1933 that all we had to fear was fear itself.

THE REAL ART of worrying in this country has been going downhill ever since. For worries do wear out. Everyone, for example, is plumb tired of fretting about the atom bomb. Now that the Russians are acting like graduates of a charm school—Dale Carnegie must be required reading in the Kremlin today—the proper attitude toward them seems to be one of dubious suspicion rather than of downright worry.

"Times are too good," says the average man, unhappily, "there just isn't anything more left to worry about."

This is a ridiculous attitude. A man with any ingenuity can always find something worth fretting about. The real test of a worrier is his ability to seek the dark lining in any silver cloud.

—:—

THE CHANCES are you have a bunch of worries you don't even realize. Look within yourself and find them. Bring these hidden troubles out. Learn their scientific names. Then you can worry about them openly and happily.

Every human being today is a walking patchwork of hidden phobias.

Housewives, for example, are beginning to get that fall housecleaning look in their eyes. They don't realize it, but they are suffering from mysophobia, or the fear of dirt, as well as ataxiophobia, the fear of disorder.

Do you hate to make up your mind? Poor fellow, you're a victim of gephyrophobia, the fear of crossing bridges.

Are you a pedestrian? Well, if you are sensible at all, you are often in the throes of agyiophobia, the fear of crossing a street. And if you are a really careful pedestrian you suffer both forms of this common disease — levophobia, or fear of objects on the left side of the body, and dextrophobia, or fear of objects on the right side of the body.

DOES YOUR JOB bore you? Let's face it, kid. You've got taphephobia, the fear of being buried alive. Doesn't that make you feel more important—to know the real name of your disease?

Do you hate to get up in the morning and face another day? Don't just laugh at this feeling. You're sick, sick, sick. You are afflicted with basophobia, stasiphobia, and stasibasiphobia—all of which mean you're afraid to stand upright.

Are you weary of television commercials? You've come down with onomatophobia, the fear of hearing certain names.

Are you angry at your husband because he comes home late? He may have either domatophobia, fear of being in a house, or (depending on your temper) amycophobia, the fear of being clawed. Maybe it would help if you shut up and contracted phonophobia—the fear of hearing one's own voice.

NOTHING TO worry about? Why the world is full of wonderful fears—from hadeophobia, the fear of hell, to apiphobia, the fear of being stung by a strange bee.

Anybody who isn't doing his fair share of worrying simply is loafing on the job and has lost the desire to be civilized.

If you can't worry about anything else, you can at least succumb to barophobia, the fear of gravity (you can always fall back on gravity) or cherophobia.

Highway Director Denies Road Plans Have Bogged Down

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's road construction program has not bogged down nor it is being "padded. . . with patch jobs" to build up favorable statistics, Highway Director S. O. Linzell said yesterday.

He told Gov. Frank J. Lausche he was making a report because a recent series of newspaper articles "may have caused some uncertainties to arise in your mind regarding the highway program."

Linzell said the news articles were based on figures for the first half of 1954. He said:

"As of today, construction valued at 73 million dollars has been let to contract; 35 million dollars more is advertised or being processed for advertising and 77 million more is scheduled for letting before the end of the year."

He said this program "exceeds in volume the program presented to the special session of the Legislature in January, 1954."

Bender Asks Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) says most of his constituents want Congress to balance the federal budget, and he is not going to vote for any new federal spending until it's done. He said Ohioans "want a cut in individual income taxes to prove that we intend to practice the economy we have been preaching."

Ohio JPs Hold Annual Session

Magistrates Hit Trend To Countywide Courts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Magistrates Assn. held its annual meeting here yesterday with principal discussion on what they said was a move to eliminate justice of peace courts.

They spoke of ways to combat a recent legislative act transferring most peace justice court functions to courts of county-wide jurisdiction.

Ed Lantz of Perry Township said the law was a "concerted move of the bar association to take over everything in the state of Ohio."

About 85 of the group's some 600 members attended the session and elected C. E. Mills, Martins Ferry, president to succeed Bert Ebright of Rynoldsburg. Earl J. Hardy, Alliance, was elected vice president; Paul Ochsenbein, Lansing, re-elected secretary, and William Dillon, Dayton, treasurer.

Optimism on Polio Inoculation Hinted In Initial Statistics

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A rough calculation shows that 6 Ohio children of every 100,000 inoculated with Salk vaccine came down with polio as against 19 of each 100 000 who were not vaccinated, the state health deparument says.

"This certainly looks suggestive," said Dr. Frederick H. Wentworth, chief of the division of communicable diseases, "but we feel it's too premature to make any conclusion on the value of the vaccine."

The figures were based on cases reported up to yesterday. But the polio season in Ohio won't reach its peak until mid-September or possibly later, Wentworth said. It may be late November before the department can say definitely how the vaccine program is working out, he added.

Ohio Set To Make Better Use Of Juvenile Diagnostic Center

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The department of mental hygiene and correction today announced plans to make better use of its juvenile diagnostic center in Columbus, beginning the first of next year.

At that time all girls committed to the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware and all boys 10 through 14 committed to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster first will be sent to the center for diagnostic study and treatment prescription

The center now receives boys, 15 and under, committed to the BIS from 50 rural counties.

Diagnosis First

"Any modernization of the treatment program in the industrial schools must begin with a professional diagnosis," said Dr John D. Porterfield, department director.

A recent professional survey of the industrial schools said treatment could be improved greatly. The same report lauded work at the center and said it should be expanded.

"The department must not slacken its efforts to make full use of the facilities it now has" Dr. Porterfield said, "The industrial schools are in serious need of all the services that the juvenile diagnostic center can provide, if their programs are to be measurably improved."

Dr. Porterfield hopes that eventually all delinquent boys and girls committed to the industrial schools will be sent to the center first.

To make room for the larger number of boys and girls who will go to the center beginning next Jan 1, Dr Porterfield curtailed guidance services to local community agencies. After today no new applications for residential guidance services will be accepted at the center

By the first of the year beds now occupied by children from local courts and welfare agencies will be available for boys and girls committed to the industrial schools.

A department spokesman called the plan the first major move in the department's "brains before bricks" program. The department is pushing a 150 million dollar building bond issue, up for a vote in November, to provide more facilities for its juvenile and adult wards.

Army Officials Probing Theft Of Ammunition

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — Army Ordnance officials investigated reports last night that large quantities of potentially dangerous small arms ammunition have been pilfered from Ravenna arsenal

The ammunition, said to have been smuggled past guards, included shotgun and rifle shells that had become water-soaked and were slated for demolition

Cases of it reportedly were on sale in bars around the Ravenna-Windham area.

Originally valued at $106,000, the ammunition had been brought to the arsenal by the George Worthington Co., a Cleveland hardware firm, after a basement flood last January soaked the shells and rendered them dangerous

Brought to the arsenal for destruction were more than five million rounds Norman F. Luekens, Worthington secretary-treasurer, said the company paid $1,300 to have the cartons destroyed.

In tests by Worthington personnel, it was found that some of the damaged shells caused barrels to become fouled or plugged by paper fragments

The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company operates the arsenal Asked for comment, a Firestone spokesman said

"We have no statement Army Ordnance is looking into it. They operate this installation"

Coal Prices Boosted

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP) — Major coal producers in both eastern and western Kentucky have announced that coal prices will go up 25-50 cents a ton today. Size and use of the coal will determine the tonnage increase. Producers said the increase was necessary to offset the $2 a day wage increase obtained recently by the United Mine Workers Union

Truman Reported Irked After Pauley Entertains Nixon

SPRINGFIELD, Ill (AP) — The Copley Press said today former President Truman has decided to snub two California Democratic fund-raising dinners because he is 'sore' at Edwin S Pauley, former treasurer of the Democratic National Committee.

The Copley Press and the Los Angeles Times in similar stories said Truman is angry because Pauley entertained Vice President Nixon and his wife at a reception recently.

Pauley, multimillionaire oil man, is a "key figure" in arrangements for the dinners Copley Press said in a story from Washington carried by the Illinois State Journal, Springfield, and other Copley newspapers.

The Los Angeles Times said Truman "is boiling Missouri mad" over Pauley's party for Nixon It said, "This was the rumor rampant in the capital today although Democratic officials stuck to their story: Mr. Truman called off his California trip on doctor's orders"

Truman was not available for comment immediately.

Pauley denied the story.

Ike Not Too Old To Run, Rep. Bolton Points Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — "A man's service to his country is not gauged by his age but by his ability," says Rep. Oliver Bolton (R-Ohio). He made the statement in a letter to constituents in which he said he wanted to "squelch this nonsense" that President Eisenhower is too old to seek a second term If elected to a second term, the President would be 70 a few months before it ended Bolton noted that many Congressmen were still serving past the age of 70, and that Winston Churchill did not retire as England's Prime Minister until 79

Offense Shaping Up

Prexy Defense Shows Leaks During Scrimmage Session

Coach Gordon Larson and his assistants today were correcting flaws made by Harding High School's football squad in a scrimmage session with Mansfield Madison following the first of four scheduled scrimmages last night at the Stadium.

Larson commented following the hour-and-a-half-long scrimmage cut short by light failure and marred by injury to a Prexy gridder that he was pleased with the Harding offense.

"OFFENSIVELY we showed spark," he remarked, but he added there were "kinks to be ironed out" in the defense.

Both squads scored once. Harding broke up an even-steven ball game when Bill Smith, speedy lightweight halfback who was one of Harding's big guns, circled end, broke away from a tackler just past the line of scrimmage and zig-zagged 80 yards.

Madison controlled play the rest of the way when it drove 80 yards. A pass from the five connected and Mansfield added the extra point.

Larson estimated that Madison held the ball about twice as much as Harding, which ran 28 plays. After each team failed to make a first down in four plays from the 20, the other squad took over there.

Harding's new coach explained that Madison's single-wing type of offense picks up yardage in persistent short chunks and said "I can't be too displeased with the kids at the first scrimmage."

HE ADDED there is a "lot of work ahead of us" and that there were "times we showed spark while other times we didn't."

Larson plans on timing up the offense and getting " a few mistakes out of our system" prior to Harding's second scrimmage of the year Saturday morning away from home.

Lineman Jud Scott suffered a cut on the cheek near the lip and was believed lost temporarily.

Following the scrimmage, Larson, his aides and the football squad were guests at a Booster Club meeting in the school. Larson and the assistant coaches introduced their gridders, whose parents were also recognized.

In a brief talk to the Booster Club, Larson said there were 10 seniors, 21 juniors and 12 to 13 sophomores on the squad and that another call for sophomores would be made when school started. He added that he was pleased with the turnut for the scrimmage game, that he was disappointed in the team's showing but that he believed by Saturday at the next scrimmage all the kinks would be ironed out.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching — Hector (Skinny) Brown, Baltimore, relieved Bill Wight with none out in the first inning and pitched eight innings of hitless ball while striking out 10 as Indians won 5-1.

Batting — Jim Rivera, White Sox, powered a pair of two-run homers in 4-2 victory over Red Sox.

Colors Aid Bowlers

CHICAGO (AP)—If you're having trouble bowling your average blame it on the alleys. William M. Stuart, president of a Chicago paint company, suggests the use of middle value colors — not too bright, not too dark — on bowling alleys. He also believes alley lights should be shaded and that shining surfaces should be dimmed. 7-3

Herb Score Returns to Form To Boost Cleveland Chances for Pennant in AL

Indians Checked by Brown After Spurt in First Inning

CLEVELAND (AP) — Young Herb Score's sparkling three-hit victory over Baltimore Wednesday boosted the Cleveland Indian's pennant hopes as they face four games with the league-leading Chicago White Sox

The rookie southpaw's performance—which gave Cleveland a 5-1 victory despite eight innings of hitless relief pitching by Baltimore's Hector Brown — kept the Indians on pace in the nip-and-tuck pennant drive.

Score's 13 strikeouts ran his total to 209, and he became the first pitcher to pass 200 since 1946, when Cleveland's Bob Feller set the record of 348.

Brown fanned 10, and the game total of 23 tied the modern major league mark. Brown, a righthander recently recalled from the Pacific Coast league, was wild at times, but stopped the Indians cold and retired the last 13 batters in succession.

Although he pitched eight full innings without allowing a hit, he can't get credit for a no-hitter. To get credit, a pitcher must go the full nine innings, and the last of the ninth wasn't necessary, as Cleveland won.

Score, who was knocked out of the box by the New York Yankees in the first inning last Saturday, regained his control He had a two-hit shutout going into the ninth, but then walked two and yielded a double to Willie Miranda.

He finished with a flourish, fanning pinch hitter Bob Hale on three pitches and blazing a called third strike past Wayne Causey.

Score, who is 14-10 for the season, has now pitched three three-hitters, a two-hitter and a one-hitter.

He probably will pitch the final game against Chicago, with Early Wynn going Friday night, then Mike Garcia and Bob Lemon.

The Tribe hopped on their former teammate Bill Wight for five tallies before he could retire the first man in the opening inning

Al Smith opened the attack with a single through the middle and Bob Avila followed with a liner to left. Hoot Evers then belted a double to left field to send both runners across. Ralph Kiner worked Wight for a free pass and a double to left by Al Rosen sent Evers home. Ferris Fain drew a base on balls and a two-base blast by Jim Hegan drove in the final two markers.

Avila became the father of a new daughter during the game. His wife gave birth to a six-pound, three-ounce girl shortly before the start of the seventh inning. The baby arrived two weeks ahead of schedule.

Only five assists were made during the game for a new major league record. The Orioles were credited with three while the Tribe had two. The former single game mark was seven set by the Indians and the St. Louis Browns in 1943.

Manager Al Lopez has nominated Early Wynn to pitch the opener of the White Sox series Friday night He probably will be opposed by Connie Johnson. The Indians' current home stand will close

Toledo Drops Last Game at Louisville

By The Associated Press

St. Paul fans probably wish Roy Hartsfield were twins.

Hartsfield, the Saints' second baseman, socked a home run, triple, double and single against Denver in an American Association game last night, but all in vain The Bears won, 4-3, despite his four for four showing at the plate

As half the league completed home stands for the season, Louisville bested Toledo, 7-5 Omaha trimmed Minneapolis, 9-7, and Charleston whipped Indianapolis, 7-3

Fair Weekend Predicted for Fishing in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Despite generally clear lakes and streams, the fish in Ohio just aren't biting these days.

That's the report from the Ohio Division of Wildlife, which predicted only fair prospects for Labor Day weekend anglers.

The report by areas:

Northwest—most streams clear but low. Lake St. Marys, Oxbow and East Harbor yielding bass, bluegills and catfish.

Northwest—most lakes normal, anglers are taking some bass, bluegills, crappies and catfish Most streams normal, but few fish being taken

East Central and Southeast — most streams and popular lakes —Burr Oak, Piedmont, Atwood, Leesville and Seneca—in fair condition, with bass and bluegills making up most of catch

Central and South—Weekend outlook fair to good, with streams in good fishing condition, along with Delaware reservoir, Buckeye Lake, Rocky Fork Lake and Jackson Lake.

Southwest — outlook fair, lakes and streams low, but clear to somewhat roily. Mad River still yielding few trout, and lakes offer some bass, bluegills, crappies and catfish.

Nashua Scores Easy Triumph Against Swaps

CHICAGO (AP)—It took Nashua 3 months and 24 days to catch up with Swaps and avenge his Kentucky Derby loss.

The powerful, mahogany bay, pride of the East, met the California-bred Swaps under neutral conditions Wednesday at Washington Park and scored a brilliant 6½-length triumph in one of the greatest match races ever run.

It was a thorough trouncing at 1¼ miles under equal weights of 126 pounds, the same as the Kentucky Derby when Swaps brushed off favored Nashua's midstretch challenge and swept to a 1½-length victory.

The $100,000 winner-take-all showdown was the first of its kind since Armed beat Assault and jockey Eddie Arcaro by eight lengths for the same jackpot at Belmont in 1947. It undoubtedly cinched 3-year-old honors and probably the Horse of the Year award for Nasrullah's handsome son, owned by William Woodward Jr. of New York.

This sweet revenge, accomplished under the sting of Arcaro's whip that spurred Nashua to a never-headed lead from the barrier, gave the colt his ninth victory in 10 starts this year

Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons Nashau's trainer, told Arcaro to "keep the other horse busy all the time. Run when you have to."

Arcaro said he "hit Nashua so hard" he thought he "set his flank on fire." He added that Nashua "did everything I asked him to do, including take the lead."

Willie Shoemaker, the losing jockey, said that "Swaps tried, but just couldn't get there." He added:

"I'm not making any excuses but I don't think he cared too much for the track—he was laboring all the way and didn't handle too well."

The $100,000 pot pushed Nashua's earnings to $689,700 as a sophomore. He collected $192,865 in winning six out of eight starts to take juvenile honors last year. The total of $882,565 left him third behind Stymie and Citation on the all-time money list.

After his defeat in the Kentucky Derby, Nashua went on to win the Preakness, Belmont, Dwyer and Arlington Classic, touching off the clamor for a showdown.

Nashua's winning time on a track termed as "good" was 2.04 2. He went off at 6-5 and returned $4 40 before a crowd of 35,262. Swaps received 1-5 backing.

Chisox Buy Papai

CHICAGO (AP) —Pitcher Al Papai of the Oklahoma City Indians was on his way to the pennant-contending Chicago White Sox today.

The big, 34-year-old righthander, a native of Divernon, Ill., was sold to the Sox by the Texas League club in a transaction announced Wednesday.

Reds' Hopes For Fourth Grow Slim

NEW YORK (AP)—The hopes of the Cincinnati Redlegs to finish in the first division of the National League for the first time since 1944 looked very, very dim today.

The facts and figures are these:

1. A 5-0 defeat at the hands of the New York Giants yesterday dropped the Redlegs 5½ games behind the fourth place New Yorkers and 6 games behind third place Philadelphia.

2. The Reds trail the Giants in the all-important games lost column by 8 and the Phils by 7 New York and Philadelphia just have to lose that many more games than the Rhinelanders for Cincinnati to catch up with them and the Reds have only 18 games to play, the Giants 23 more to go and the Phils 20 to go.

On the advantage side is the fact the Reds have most of their remaining games at home while both the Giants and the Phils must make another swing through the west.

But on the basis of previous records, the Redlegs figure to have their troubles on their remaining road games. Their defeat yesterday was their 44th in 70 road games and they still have 7 to play on foreign grounds.

And just in case anyone is concerned, the Redlegs will not win the 1955 National League pennant.

Whips Charles

Hurricane Jackson Gains Verdict He Didn't Want

CLEVELAND (AP) — Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, the fantastic young fighter who had just battered Ezzard Charles into helplessness, walked up to the 34-year-old ex-champ in the dressing room Wednesday night and told him, "That was one fight I hated to win."

The tall, 24-year-old youngster from Far Rockaway, N.Y., with his second unanimous 10-round decision over Charles in less than a month, had spoiled the Cincinnati boxer's hopes for another crack at the world's heavyweight crown.

In the ring before the TV cameras, Jackson was a dancing, weaving, cocky jack-in-the-box, finally staggering the baffled Charles in the 10th round and hitting him with punches from everywhere.

But in the Cleveland arena's dressing room, Jackson was shy and self-conscious as he walked up to Charles and apologized for beating him.

Charles, just out of the shower, was seated on a stool with a towel around his midsection, talking to reporters. His right eye was swollen nearly shut from the beating he took in the final minutes of the bout, but he wasn't seriously hurt.

Jackson, without a mark on him, walked up, leaned over the older man, and also whispered his apologies. He straightened up as Charles responded with some advice to a young boxer.

"Take care of yourself and keep trying," Charles said. "You've got a lot of ability that most fellows haven't got. Put your heart in it."

Tears welled in Jackson's eyes as he listened to Charles, and he broke in with:

"But I don't want to fight."

"Oh, if you don't want to fight that's a different story," said Charles. "With me it was different, I wanted to fight—"

"I fight because there's nothing else I can do," interrupted Jackson and walked away.

Asked if the defeat meant his retirement, Charles told reporters he'd have to think about it for a few days.

Irish Step Up Practice After Drill on Road

Coach Ray Robbins of St. Mary today speeded up drills for his Irish grid candidates after St. Mary was trounced by a rugged and speedy Upper Sandusky squad in a scrimmage there last night.

Robbins reported today that his squad was "not ready yet" and that a "lot of work" remained before the season opener. He added that the Irish squad was the "farthest behind than at any time" he has been here.

Upper Sandusky scored six or seven times in the two-hour scrimmage last night and blanked St. Mary. Robbins described the defense as not being "up to par" and said on offense "no backs were moving." Lack of backfield speed is Robbins' chief worry this year.

Robbins, who used a lot of inexperienced men last night, said he was pleased in the respect that the "kids never quit."

Pennant Chase Wide Open in IL Campaign

By The Associated Press

With only four days to go, it's a pretty safe bet that Toronto, Montreal, Havana and Rochester will be the combatants in the International League playoffs. Still left to be answered is: Who's going to win the pennant?

Toronto is still on top after its 9-4 victory over Havana last night. Havana, now five games back, seems consigned to third place, nine games ahead of the Rochester Red Wings, who blasted Richmond, 14-8. But the Montreal Royals, with their doubleheader victory against Columbus, 2-1 and 5-2, have moved within half a game of the Leafs and are set to go right down to the wire in quest of the title they last won in 1952. Buffalo toppled Syracuse, 2-1, in a ten-inning struggle to round out league action.

Henney & Cooper PICTURE TALK by Kent

There is a growing tendency among 35 mm photographers to own two cameras. The reason for this is, of course the desire or need to use both black and white and color film, so a second camera is the easiest answer. Usual procedure is to use the better of the two always for color. With two cameras loaded, you're ready for any picture taking situation.

The second camera may be a duplicate of the first, but on the other hand one may not wish to make a major investment in what may be considered by some a pure luxury item. But a second camera need not be too much of a strain on the budget. Consider the Kodak Pony line. There's the 828 with a fast f4.5 lens, a shutter to 1/200, which uses 8 exposure rolls, fine for week end shooting, which sells for just $29.50. Then we have the Pony 135, Model B with the same lens and shutter equipment at $29.75, and the new Pony 135 Model C, with a new lens (f3.5) and a shutter with speeds to 1/300 for only $33.75. Investigate the Ponies!

Keegan Posts First Victory Of Campaign for White Sox

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Chicago's old folks pitching staff reclaimed Bob Keegan today and the White Sox shoved off for Cleveland to put their half-game lead in the American League to a showdown test against the Indians.

Manager Marty Marion's been getting a lot more mileage than anyone expected from his mound veterans, riding on top with the likes of Virgil Trucks, 36; Sandy Consuegra, 35; Millard Howell, 35; Morrie Martin, 33; Connie Johnson, 32; and Harry Byrd, 30. And now Keegan, 34, is back in good standing.

The big right-hander, a 16-9 help to the White Sox last season but a bust thus far in '55, came back with an eight-hitter Wednesday to beat Boston 4-2. It was his first victory and first complete game since Sept. 12, 1954.

Rivera Hits Two

Jim Rivera contributed a pair of two-run homers.

With a sweep of the two-game Boston series, Chicago stayed five percentage points ahead of New York and Cleveland, deadlocked in second. The Indians kept the pace as rookie Herb Score three-hit Washington 5-1 and fanned 13, overcoming eight hitless relief innings by the Orioles Hec Brown. New York made it past Kansas City 11-6, but Tommy Byrne needed help to gain his 13th victory when the A's scored five in the ninth.

Boston fell five games behind. Byrne, 35, was breezing along on a four-hitter, behind home runs by Irv Noren, Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle, and had retired 13 in order when the A's went to work in the ninth. Don Larsen finally called the rally to a halt. Arnie Portocarrero was the loser as the Yanks belted 17 hits.

In the other AL game Wednesday Earl Torgeson pinched a three-run homer in the seventh as Detroit edged Washington 7-4 and rookie Frank Lary won his 13th.

Dodgers Pounded

In the National, Milwaukee brought six Brooklyn pitchers to the mound in a 13-8 pasting of the league-leading Dodgers. New York made it three straight over Cincinnati 5-0, Philadelphia clobbered Chicago 13-2 and Pittsburgh edged St.Louis 4-3 on Johnny O'Brien's single in the 10th inning.

George Crowe hit two home runs, Eddie Mathews banged his 35th and Del Rice walloped his third in the Braves' attack that started against loser Carl Erskine. Lew Burdette, in relief of Bob Buhl, won his 11th.

The Phils had 12 hits against the Cubs' Jim Davis and three reliefers, while Murry Dickson won his 11th on a four-hitter. Stan Lopata and Jim Greengrass homered for the Phils.

Young Expert

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (AP) — Teddy Moore is only six years old but can talk man to man with his father about fishing. The youngster hooked a sunfish, but before he could land it a 33-inch muskie swallowed it. With an assist from other fishermen, Teddy caught the muskie.

Delaware Dam Area Open for Hunting Season

COLUMBUS — Squirrel hunters wishing to take advantage of the experimental season beginning today may do so on the following public hunting areas: Waterloo Public Hunting Area, Athens County; Trimble Public Hunting Area, Athens County; Woodbury Public Hunting Area, Coshocton County; Brush Creek Public Hunting Area, Jefferson County; Wolf Creek Public Hunting Area, Morgan County; Roosevelt - Shawnee Public Hunting Area, Scioto County; Delaware Public Hunting Area, Delaware, Morrow and Marion Counties and Milan Public Hunting Area, Erie County.

All the areas will be open for squirrel hunting through Oct. 31. Hunters planning to hunt these areas between Sept. 1 and Sept. 6 must first obtain a report-permit which will be issued free at checking stations located on each of the areas.

Squirrels killed on the public hunting areas between Sept. 1 and Sept. 14 and between Oct. 17 and Oct. 31, must be checked in at the various checking stations and tagged with transportation tags showing that they were legally taken on the experimental areas.

Location of the checking stations on the Delaware Reservoir Area is near the large area sign by the dam on Delaware County Road 220.

Game officials point out that experimental squirrel seasons in the future will depend to a great extent on the manner in which hunters conduct themselves during the 1955 season. It is important that each hunter check in and out at the designated stations and at all times stay within the law

Tribe Calls Up 5 Members of AA Farm Club

CLEVELAND (AP)—Five players from the American Association will join the Cleveland Indians when the Tribe begins its last eastern trip next Tuesday.

The Indians' front office announced today that first baseman Joe Altobelli, outfielder Rocco Colavito and second baseman Bobby Young were recalled and the contracts of pitcher Hank Aguirre and second baseman Stan Pawloski were purchased from the Tribe's Indianapolis farm club.

Two other pitchers, Dick Tomanek and Marion Murszewski, also have been recalled, but they will not report until 1956 spring training, the Indians said.

Altobelli, who played for Cleveland early in the season, has chalked up a .276 batting mark at Indianapolis, while Colavito is .270 with 27 homers and 91 runs batted in.

Young, who played for St. Louis and Baltimore and was purchased this summer by Cleveland before being optioned, has been hitting .352 in the farm club. Pawloski has a .274 average with 79 RBI's.

The Tribe called Aguirre "one of the best pitching prospects in the Indians' farm system." He has an 11-9 record at Indianapolis, with an earned run average of 3.00, third best in the association. Tomanek is 5-12 and Murszewski stands 7-14.

Reds

Their defeat yesterday wiped out the last mathematical chance to overhaul the Brooklyn Dodgers.

They were due to wind up their last eastern swing here today with Joe Nuxhall pitching against Jim Hearn or Ramon Monzant.

Yesterday the Giants wasted little time in clobbering starter Art Fowler for three runs. Three singles, a wild pitch, two walks and a sacrifice fly were all the New Yorkers needed for their victory.

Joe Black stopped the Giants after that but Hershell Freeman yielded two more New York runs in the eighth on Dusty Rhodes' single and a home run by Gail Harris.

On the hitting side, it was another day of frustration for the Reds. Four times they hit into double plays and their best chance to get back in the ball game was lost in the sixth and once again the man who failed them was Ted Kluszewski plus the usually reliable Gus Bell.

With two on and no one out, Kluszewski popped out and after Wally Post had been hit by a pitched ball to fill the bases, Bell hit into a weird double play. He tapped to pitcher Reuben Gomez who caught Johnny Temple on a play at the plate and Bell was called out for running wide of the base line as a throw to first hit him in the back.

Catcher Jim Hegan of the Indians has caught three major league no-hit games. They were: Don Black's in 1947, Bob Lemon's in 1948 and Bob Feller's in 1951.

Erie Defeats Local 1949 in 7-6 Battle To Take Industrial Title

Erie No. 2 grabbed the Industrial League No. 2 championship Wednesday night at Garfield Park by edging Local 1949 7-6 in a second round playoff game. The winners captured the first round title earlier.

The Railroaders won the tilt despite being held to four hits by Green of the loser.

Two runs in the top of the seventh proved to be the deciding margin and enabled Cottrell to post the victory on an eight-hitter.

Local 1949 broke a scoreless tie with two runs in the third but Erie came up with four in the fifth to lead the rest of the way. Three hits, by Cottrell, Carr and Hall, a pair of hit batsmen and an error accounted for the four fifth-inning runs. Another run crossed the plate in the sixth on a walk, a pair of infield outs and an error and Erie scored the winning seventh-inning markers on a walk, sacrifice, infield out and an error. Local 1949 matched Erie's sixth-inning run and then three in the seventh on three hits and an error left the losers a run shy.

Hindman and Smith cracked out two hits apiece for the losers.

Giel Was Great

NEW YORK (AP) — Pitcher Paul Giel of the Giants still likes to talk football. But seldom discusses his own great performances on the gridiron.

Rather reluctantly the former All-America backfield star from Minnesota recalled his best day on the football field. It was against Michigan when The Gophers won the Little Brown Jug for the first time in 11 years.

Here's what Paul did: gained 112 yeards rushing, completed 13 of 18 passes for 169 yards, scored two touchdowns and passed for a third, intercepted two passes and ran back five kicks.

your Ford Dealer makes it easy for you to be a 2-car family!
● Of course, the ideal way to become a 2-car family is to buy a new Ford and keep your present car as a "second." And that's easy, too.
But the easiest way, and a fine way, is to buy a Ford Dealer A-1 Used Car. And it's particularly easy to do that right now . . . because we're offering special inducements to people who want to buy a second car. Why? That's one of our ways of making friends. For, once you buy a car from us, we are sure you'll like the way we do business . . . and that we'll have a good chance of selling you a new Ford in the future.
Come in and let us show you our wide variety of good-looking, A-1 Used Cars and tell you about our . . .
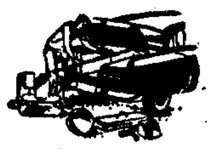
Special Savings on A-1 USED CARS to people who want to buy a second car during September!
Come in today
. . . and see how easy we can make it for you!
Here's why A SECOND CAR is a NECESSITY

For getting children to school there's nothing like having a second car . . . especially when you have little ones or the school is not close by.


To enjoy your hobbies a second car is almost a must. With a second car, the men in the family can go fishing, hunting, golfing—and the girls can go about their activities—without leaving other members of the family stranded without transportation.

In case of an emergency a second car enables you to go wherever you must in a hurry. And it's always a comfort to know your second car is there—just in case.

For grocery shopping, and all other shopping too, how can you manage without a car? A second car lets Mother suit her shopping to her own schedule and convenience.

So the young folks can go, too. Young people have their own friends and interests—which are usually not the same as Mother's and Dad's. With two cars in the family, both youngsters and children can come and go as they wish.

Departure of Allied Forces in Full Swing

Big Four Rushes Austrian Evacuation

VIENNA (AP)—Some Russian soldiers are reported killing themselves or deserting . . . Long military trains are pulling out through the night to east and west . . . Austrian girls are hurrying to wed their departing American boy friends.

The evacuation of Austria by the armies of the Big Four is in full swing.

In the five weeks since Austria finally won her independence July 27, the occupation powers are estimated to have pulled out more than half of their 60,000 soldiers.

The French will all be gone by Sept. 10, the British by Sept. 19. Russian operational forces will be out by Oct. 1 and the Americans about the same time.

Austrian police report several Soviet soldiers are believed to have committed suicide. Unconfirmed reports say about 10 deserted to the Western armies. Other unconfirmed reports speak of deserters caught and shot before assembled Soviet troops.

One of the busiest little resorts in the country today is Baden, a few miles from the capital in the Vienna Woods. For 10 years it has been the Russian headquarters, with Soviet offices in elegant hotels, billets in fashionable villas and the officers' mess in a gambling casino.

Now much in the town has been returned to the Austrians. Property values are soaring.

Salzburg's American consulate reports a marriage boom. The office is working overtime to clear the records of Austrian girls the soldiers want to marry.

In contrast with most of their countrymen, the Salzburgers generally regret the American departure. The Army and its dependents spent almost 30 million dollars a year there.

As a gift, the Americans are leaving a 16-million-dollar camp area.

The Big Four are also leaving behind living reminders—"occupation babies." Vienna alone has 2,300 after the troops' 10-year stay.

According to Austrian statistics, American fathers lead the list with 1,128 illegitimate children in the city. The Russians are next with 649, the British 357 and the French 166.

ASHLEY WOMAN INJURED

ASHLEY — Mrs. Russell Smith of Ashley underwent surgery Wednesday at Jane M. Case Hospital, Delaware, for a severe wound suffered in her left leg while she was mowing her lawn with a power mower. A small wire was thrown into her leg by the lawn mower and caused a four inch wound.

Man Asks $10,000 In Damage Claim

A $10,000 damage suit has been filed against the Ohio Power Co. of Canton by Nelson Witzel of near Waldo in the Marion County Common Pleas Court.

In his petition, Witzel claims the Power Co. cut down and destroyed 17 trees, shrubs and bushes when they installed a 132,000 volt transmission line over and across his property in Richland Township in November of 1952.

Heavy equipment used in installing this line also caused damage to fences and crops, Witzel says, estimated at $5,000. The other $5,000 is asked by Witzel for punitive damages for trespassing on his land.

The law firm of Wilhelm and Robinson is representing Witzel in this action.

RESIGNS IN ASHLEY

ASHLEY — At a meeting of the Ashley Waterworks Board Tuesday night at Wornstaff Library, the resignation of Charles McBeth as superintendent of the water plant, east of Ashley, was accepted. John Lindsay was hired for that office.

Fire Damages Furniture

Loss estimated at $100 resulted to a davenport at the home of Howard Davis, 572 Herman St., when it caught fire this morning. Fire Chief O. A. Sifritt reported.

Firemen from the Central and W. Center St. stations made the run at 8:04 a.m.

Batavia Man Killed

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP) — Harry K. Newberry, 22, of Batavia, was killed last night in a two car collision three miles west of here on Ohio 74, the state highway patrol reported.

Additional Courses Scheduled For Pleasant School Students

Pleasant High School students will be offered several additional courses when classes begin next Tuesday in Marion County schools.

In addition to the new driver education, journalism and speech courses, the high school pupils will have the opportunity this year to study under a supervised correspondence plan provided by the University of Nebraska. Students who wish to study courses not available in classes at the school may enroll in one of the correspondence courses sponsored by the university and receive high school credits for the course taken. Study in connection with the correspondence courses may be done during study hall periods under the supervision of a teacher.

Advanced algebra, solid geometry and junior business (for freshmen and sophomores) will also be offered at the school this year. These courses are alternates and were offered two years ago.

Also this year for the first time, Pleasant School will have a woman teacher, Mrs. Jean Hubinger, to conduct the girls' physical education classes.

Building Repaired

During the summer months, the school has been painted and plastered and the roof of the older part of the building is being replaced. Ohio Granges Hit 100 Per Cent Participation in National Event

Entries from each of Marion County's 13 granges have helped to make Ohio a 100 per cent grange community service state, it was announced today by the Ohio State Grange. This is an accomplishment which has been considered practically impossible by grange leaders of the nation because of the large number of Ohio granges involved.

All 904 local Ohio granges have made formal entry in this national contest which carries a $10,000 first prize and other cash awards sponsored jointly by the National Grange and the Sears - Roebuck Foundation

Leads Nation

Ohio is the largest grange state in the nation with a membership of 180,000 which represents more than 95,000 rural Ohio families

Referring to the 100 per cent entry of Ohio granges, Herschel D. Newson, master of the National Grange, said that this is "an outstanding achievement." The largest state prior to Ohio's entries this year was Connecticut with 157 granges.

Byron Frederick of Summit County, who has headed the Ohio State Grange since December of 1950, said he believes that a grange "must serve its community, further legislation that is sound for the farmer, and add to the pleasantness of living for its members if it is to do the job for which it was organized."

To Pick Best

From written reports filed by each grange the 37 state granges' will pick their best to represent their state in the national contest. Judges will meet in Washington, D C, on Oct 1 to select the 10 best in the nation from the state reports, which will share in national prizes totaling $26,500 State prizes also will be awarded

One grange in Marion County, judged best in its community service projects will be awarded a $50 savings bond, and each grange will receive a plaque of the grange symbol Grange chairman who wrote community service reports for their grange were Mrs Wilford Portel, Mt Olive, Walter Bender, Bethlehem: Bettylou McFarlan, Salt Rock, F. D. Lawrence, United, Harry Dutt Sr, Whetstone, Howard Chick, Progressive; Mrs Mozelle Roux, Montgomery; Mrs. Elvida Harris, Bowling Green; Mrs. Walter Lyon, Grand Prairie; Mrs. Erma Brinel, Pleasant; Mrs. Ada Baldinger, Martel; Oda E. Hart, Tymochtee; and Delhah Speece, Kirkpatrick.

Hot Weather Care Is Needed for Milk

CHICAGO (UP) — The National Dairy Council says the best way to preserve milk in hot weather is to keep it cold, clean and in the dark

The Council gave these tips:

1. Remove milk from the doorstep as soon as possible after delivery.

2. Wipe container with clean, damp cloth and store in coldest part of refrigerator, but not the freezer compartment

3. Don't touch or wipe the pouring surface of the container which has been kept sterile with a covering cap put on by the dairy.

4. Limit the time milk is out of refrigerator. Ordinary daylight deteriorates flavor and vitamin values in milk.

5. Don't pour unused milk back into container. Losses of flavor or vitamin values in exposed milk will affect that left in container.

Cake Frosting Is Filled With Dates and Nuts

Here's the perfect cake to take on a picnic or for use in school lunch boxes this fall.

A generous sized loaf, it has a creamy butterscotch frosting flecked with cut-up dates and chopped nuts.

To make this fine-textured, deliciously flavored yellow cake, use:

2¼ cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
2½ teaspoons double acting baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup shortening
¾ cup milk

Sift first 4 ingredients into mixing bowl. Drop in shortening. Add ½ cup milk, flavoring extracts, and 1 egg and beat 300 strokes (3 min. on mixer at low speed). Scrape bowl and spoon or beaters. Add remaining ¼ cup milk and 2 eggs and beat 200 strokes (2 min. on mixer at low speed.) Bake in greased oblong pan, 9"x13"x2", in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 40-45 min. Spread Date-Scotch Frosting on top of cake.

Date-Scotch Frosting

Combine in medium-sized saucepan: 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 3 tablespoons shortening, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon salt, bring slowly to boil over low heat, stirring constantly. Add one-third cup milk, blend thoroughly, then bring to a boil and boil gently over low heat 3 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Cool slightly. Add 1½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar and beat until thick enough to spread. Stir in ½ cup cut-up dates and ¼ cup chopped nuts.

Soviet Flier Is Assured Of Citizenship in U.S.

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — Peter Pirogov, a Russian Flier who risked his life to hop the Iron Curtain in 1948, will become an American citizen.

The last major barrier was cleared Wednesday with the announcement that the Immigration and Naturalization Service has approved Pirogov's application for citizenship.

Pirogov, a navigator, and pilot Anatole Barsoff landed in a Russian bomber at an airport in the American zone of Austria seven years ago with a scant two minutes of fuel left.

Barsoff became homesick and returned to Russia, but Pirogov, now 35, settled in Fairfax County, Va. He is now a consultant to the Air Force.

Dog Forgets Role Of Host at Party

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Jackie Sue Miles, 12, gave a birthday party for her 3-year-old Brittany spaniel Mickey Wednesday.

Dog candy favors were distributed to the guests—14 neighborhood dogs accompanied by their young masters and mistresses.

Everything went smoothly enough until it became time to serve the birthday cake, made of dog food and topped with three candles.

Then Mickey, dropping the role of the perfect host, took a hostile stand in front of the cake to keep her guests away from it.

Jackie put a leash on Mickey and took her into the house. Then the guest dogs were served.

Fender Skirts Found; Youths Facing Charge

The theft and recovery of a pair of fender skirts from a Marion youth's car Wednesday night has resulted in three youths being ordered to appear before the juvenile officer of the Marion police department.

James M. Rush, 18, of 254 Blaine Ave. reported to police at 1.05 p.m. Wednesday that the fender skirts had been stolen from his car while it was parked at the Marion County Bank Drive-in parking lot.

Rush told police he thought a 16-year-old had taken the skirts, police checked the 16-year-old's car where they found the skirts behind the front seat. The 16-year-old, though, told police he had been with another youth during most of the evening, and had left his car parked on the west side.

The 16-year-old, his companion, and Rush were all ordered to appear before the Juvenile officer later to explain the situation.

Garbage Can Missing

Police today are looking for a thief who evidently needed a new garbage can. Someone stole one from the home of Mrs. Floyd McKnight at 183 Jefferson St. Tuesday night, she told police Wednesday morning.

Theft of the garbage can was not so bad, police reported, but the thief dumped the garbage onto the McKnight yard before making off with the container.

Wall Street Passes Hat, Raises $1,200 To Aid Patrolman

NEW YORK (AP)—Early this week Patrolman Julius A. Horai, 52, turned down a promotion to detective. He said it wasn't worth the extra $215 a year, considering he would have less time to spend with his family.

A detective is on call around the clock, while a patrolman works specified hours.

The word got around in Wall Street, which has been Horai's beat for most of his 23 years on the force. Folks in the area, remembering the policeman's past kindness and consideration, 'passed the hat.'

Result: contributions totaled $1,200—equal to six years of the pay boost Horai turned down.

Fear Sell-Out in Adenauer Parley at Moscow

East German Reds Fight Unification

By OMER ANDERSON

BONN (NANA)—A thinly veiled family row is going on between Communist East Germany and the Soviet Union over Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's visit to Moscow.

Moscow's German puppet, clearly afraid of a Kremlin sell-out, is loosing propaganda broadsides at the West, particularly at the Adenauer government, reminiscent of the height of the Cold War. Statements from East German official sources suggest that the Soviet zone regime is verging on open revolt against the Soviet new, soft foreign policy line.

Evidence points to the worst internal crisis with the East German government since the Soviet zone anti-Communist revolt of June 17, 1953.

Neues Deutschland, Berlin newspaper published by the East German Communist party, warned Soviet zone youth that they must prepare for military service. "Armed defense of the state," declared the Communist daily, "takes precedence over education and the quest for a pleasant life."

THE COMMUNIST organ, attacking Adenauer's mission to Moscow, predicted that "Adenauer will discuss German reunification to prevent it. His policy and propaganda are only diverting maneuvers to mislead public opinion."

Fritz Selbmann, East German minister for heavy industry, summoned a conference of experts to blueprint a speed-up in Soviet zone industrialization. Selbmann demanded "the highest possible rationalization, mechanization and automation of industry."

Selbmann called for the Soviet zone's "increased independence from raw material imports."

This statement in particular lifted eyebrows in West Germany. Not only is Russia trying to spur trade between the Communist bloc and the West, but the Communist bloc itself is now trying to integrate the various Red national economies into an eastern European "Schumann Plan." Selbmann's call for increased industrial effort indicates the East German Reds fear economic pressure from Moscow to force them to toe the new Khrushchev - Bulganin line.

The East German press is devoid of any of the sweetness and light toward the West that Pravda and other Soviet publications are gushing these days.

NEUES DEUTSCHLAND asserted that the United States intends to utilize atomic weapons in the next war. Der Morgen, another East Berlin daily, charged that Hiroshima was an "unscrupulous demonstration of military power."

An exhibition called "agents, spies and saboteurs" has been opened in East Berlin by the Soviet zone secret police. The "exhibition" consists of radio equipment and weapons allegedly used by Western spies in the Soviet zone.

Assessing the Geneva conference, the East German press has taken the line that the West's policy of strength, "which followed the footsteps of the German militarists and conjured up the danger of a new war, suffered defeat at Geneva."

The general tone of Soviet zone propaganda seems designed to stiffen the Soviet attitude toward the West. The Soviet zone regime also is taking every opportunity to show that it intends to stay in business for many years to come.

In this connection Neues Deutschland, commenting on the pioneer (Communist youth organization for children eight to 14 years) rally in Dresden, pledged that the East German Communist party "will care increasingly for the patriotic education of young East Germans, because they are the generation that in a few years will shape our great project of reconstruction."

SOVIET ZONE premier Otto Grotewohl has vanished from East Germany. It is reported that he is "vacationing in the Soviet Union." There is speculation that the Soviets agreed to Grotewohl's visit to quiet East German misgivings over the Adenauer invitation. Grotewohl apparently intends to be on hand to step in if, as is expected, Adenauer raises the subject of German unity.

Soviet difficulties with its East German protege began with the Kremlin's invitation to Adenauer to visit Moscow. This decision was taken without consulting the East Berlin regime. The announcement burst like a bomb in East Germany. East German correspondents in Moscow gasped audibly when the news was given to the world press.

The Soviet delegation stopped off in East Berlin en route to the Geneva conference to soothe the East Germans. Likely as a consequence of East German protests, the Soviet attitude on German unity was considerably stiffer at Geneva than the West had anticipated.

En route back to Moscow Khrushchev and Bulganin spent several days in East Germany, plainly to reassure the East Germans. Their categorical statements while in East Germany on German unity took some of the luster off the Geneva meeting, but apparently did not reassure the nervous East German Communists.

Early in August Grotewohl, in as much a warning to the Kremlin as to the West, rejected free elections as the basis for German unity. Unity, added Grotewohl, could only be achieved through negotiation by Adenauer with the Grotewohl government.

The various Soviet statements spurning German reunification on any but Communist terms has taken considerable starch out of the Soviet peace drive. There is patent evidence that Russia has been maneuvered into a much more intransigent position on unity by the East German leaders than she otherwise would have taken so early in her "co-existence" campaign.

THE PRISONER SLEPT

PROVO, Utah (UP)—A bench warrant sworn out for an accused embezzler was quietly dropped here recently when an investigation disclosed the accused man had been in jail at the time. The jailer had forgotten to waken him, and the prisoner slept right through his arraignment time.

Kansans Now Free Of Veterans' Bonus

TOPEKA, Kan (UP) — For the first time in 32 years, the state of Kansas became debt-free on July 1.

On that date, the state finished paying off the last of its World War I veterans' bonus bonds. Final payment was $259 375, the last quarter - million bond retirement plus interest.

In all, the $31,650 000 in bonds cost the people of the Sunflower State $21,839,813 in interest, because the bonds were issued under a statutory provision that only one million of them could be retired annually.

Kansas legislatures in the last few years have defeated all attempts to provide bonuses for Kansans in military service during World War II and the Korean conflict.

Versatility Needed By Police Officers

CHICAGO (UP) — A policeman nowadays must be a versatile person, according to the Civil Service Assembly.

His work can involve being a frogman, delivering babies, or measuring smog.

The assembly cites as illustrations the following diversified training programs for policemen:

Eight Newark, N. J., officers have been trained for underwater rescue and salvage. They wear a 34 - pound underwater breathing gadget.

Police in Jersey City, N. J , are trained to handle emergency maternity cases. They go to lectures on what to do if confronted with childbirth and how to care for a newborn baby.

In Los Angeles County, Calif., police are learning to detect and appraise smoke density to help eliminate smog.

Police in Arlington County, Virginia, have taken eight hours of instruction in types of abnormal behavior that can be expected from the mentally ill and how to act without harming such persons.

The Detroit, Mich., department has a homicide investigation course.

Meal Ideas for a Labor Day Weekend

Potato Salad Made With Cooked Dressing Is Suggestion Given

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Labor day weekend poses no meal problems if you prepare a roast (beef, veal, lamb, ham or fresh pork) at the beginning of the holiday and have lots of vegetables on hand.

After the roast is served hot at the initial weekend meal, the left-over meat along with various vegetables, may be used for sandwiches, salads, skillet dishes and casseroles. Some of the vegetables on hand, should, of course, be fresh and suitable for salads; some of them can be frozen or canned for skillet-dishes and casseroles. We find that two comparatively new canned products, stewed tomatoes and tiny green peas, are endlessly useful. The stewed tomatoes are regular canned tomatoes with onion, green pepper, celery and seasonings added. The very young small green peas are similar to the petit pois from France, and are delectable For a quick skillet dish, you can heat diced leftover meat with a can of the drained tiny peas, and serve the combination over rice.

For one of the meals at which the meat is to be served sliced and cold, we suggest an old-fashioned potato salad. It can be made the day before it is to be eaten, and refrigerated; its flavors will mellow and develop. By old-fashioned potato salad, we mean the sort that is prepared with a home made cooked dressing.

If you use long white potatoes for the salad and boil them in their jackets, you'll find the thin skins slip off easily. Cook some extra potatoes, too, and refrigerate them; diced and added to a cream sauce, they'll be a fine accompaniment to the cold meat at another meal. You can put the creamed potatoes into a pie plate, sprinkle them with grated cheddar cheese and paprika, and run them under the broiler. Or you can sprinkle them with minced green pepper, canned pimiento, parsley or chives before serving.

OLD-FASHIONED POTATO SALAD

Ingredients: 4 medium - sized (about 1 pound) potatoes, 3 green onions or 1 small onion, 2 hard-cooked eggs, ½ cup diced celery, Cooked Salad Dressing, salt and white pepper, salad greens, pickles, paprika.

Method: Scrub potatoes; do not peel. Put in saucepan and barely cover with boiling water; add ½ teaspoon salt for each cup of water. Bring to a boil; cover; cook rapidly just until tender — about 40 minutes. Drain and strip off skins; dice. Mince green onions (using most of green part) or onion. Chop one egg and reserve other for garnish. Mix lightly the potatoes, onion, chopped egg, celery and Cooked Salad Dressing; add salt and pepper to taste. Garnish with salad greens, sliced reserved egg and pickles. Sprinkle sliced egg with paprika. Makes 6 servings.

COOKED SALAD DRESSING

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk, ¼ cup cider vinegar, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon celery seed

Method: Stir flour, sugar, salt and mustard together thoroughly in top part of double boiler. Add milk gradually, stirring until smooth after each addition; add eggs; beat with long-handled two-tined fork until combined with other ingredients Stir in vinegar a teaspoon at a time Cook over simmering (not boiling) water, stirring constantly, until thickened — this will take 15 or 20 minutes Remove from heat, stir in butter and celery seed. Makes about 1 2-3 cups Cool and use whole amount of dressing in Old-Fashioned Potato Salad

Home Foreclosure Rate Remains Low

CHICAGO (UP) — Home foreclosures continue at a low rate, reflecting the nation's prosperity.

The United States Savings and Loan League reported that in 1954, for the 10th straight year, the ratio of foreclosures to the number of new home mortgages ran below one per cent.

"There's no better testimonial to the state of health of the nation's economy than the current exceedingly low rate of home foreclosures," said J. Howard Edgerton, president of the league.

The 1954 total of 26,000 foreclosures was near the record low, he said. It was 75 per cent of the 3,450,000 mortgages recorded during the year.

The total foreclosures compared to 21,400 in 1953, or 68 per cent of mortgages recorded

"On the basis of this information," Edgerton said, "it is clear that the recession last year had little, if any, effect upon American home owners.

"This indicates not only the limited extent of the recession, but also that today's home loan contract is a far more flexible instrument than in pre-depression days."

No One at Home

FORT DODGE, Ia. (UP)—A. C. Paulson, Albert City, drove here to visit Joe Nordquist without calling in advance.

Since he often didn't call beforehand, Paulson was accustomed to finding no one at home.

But this time when he got here he found that not only were the Nordquist not at home, but their house was gone, the basement filled in and the lot levelled off

Plants are most susceptible to weed killers during rapid growth and this is the time weeds should be sprayed, if possible.

Cats' Curiosity Now Helping in Scientific Tests

LOS ANGELES, Calif (UP) — The cat's well-known curiosity and his liking for food are being put to use in a medical experiment designed to bring forth a new and better way of diagnosing certain brain disorders.

The first phase of the experiment takes place when the feline subject is shown a large device with two windows through which light of varying intensity is beamed.

After becoming amply aroused by the shining panes, the cat begins to explore about the object, and soon learns that by going to the window with the brighter light he can earn a meal

The light in the other window is slowly brought up to the level of the first The cat now goes to one window half the time and then to the other in his search for a choice morsel of food He has learned to associate brightness with food.

The scientists now slip kitty a "mickey" and remove selected parts of his brain. Then the cat is retested for his ability to select the correct window

Through this series of tests, doctors hope to find that portion of the brain which controls our sense of sight. This knowledge would be useful in locating and diagnosing brain tumors through visual symptoms.

SOUTHERN ACCENT

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — Typically southern foods are increasingly popular in all parts of the country. And the frozen food industry can take the credit, says Helen Thackeray, consumer service specialist. She said in the last few years, consumption of such vegetables as kale, black-eyed peas okra and collard greens has increased from 2,000,000 to 30,000,000 packages.

New School Addition, Driver's Training Await Waldo Students

Innovations at the Waldo School this year include a new $59,000 addition and a course in driver's training.

Classes will begin at Waldo, as at other county schools, on Tuesday, Sept. 6. A half-day session is planned for that day with school buses following their regular routes. School will start at 8:45 a.m. The first full day of classes will be Wednesday, Sept. 7, and the school cafeteria will open at that time.

Teachers' Meeting Slated

A teachers' meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 5 at the school.

The new addition to the school includes a farm shop, home economics room and vocational - agriculture classroom furnished with new equipment. The room formerly used for home economics has been completely redecorated and converted into a second grade classroom and the old farm shop building has been abandoned.

New teachers this year at Waldo include: Mrs. Mary G. Carlyle, second grade teacher, who taught last year at Hyatts in Delaware County; Miss Mary Shaver of Delaware, third grade; Miss Janice Slaybaugh of Barberton, high school English, French and speech; and Miss Christina Scranton of Marion, home economics and general science.

255 Cities Charge For Plants' Waste

CHICAGO (UP) — More than 255 U.S. cities of over 5,000 population make industries pay for discharging industrial waste material into municipal sewers, according to a recent report of the American Public Works Association.

Most of the cities base the charge on how much water an industry uses. But 41 have flat charges and 32 base their charge on both quantity of waste discharged and the kind or quality of the waste.

Cities questioned considered dairy wastes and those from meat packing as rendering the most objectionable discharged in their sewer systems.

Listed in descending order as less objectionable were wastes from metals and metal plating, food processing, canneries, oils and oil products, chemicals, poultry, textiles, garages and gas stations, dye and dry cleaning, breweries, laundries, tanneries, paper, tobacco, paint, glass, photographic laboratories and restaurants.

Parents Get Blame In Bad Food Habit

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—Parents can take most of the blame, if children grow up with atrocious eating habits, says one authority.

Miss Mary Barnes, Southern Illinois University nutritionist, says that when children exert their independence, "parents give in all too quickly to their choice of foods."

Mrs. Barnes, who has made a study of teen-agers' eating habits, says that on the whole they are "deplorable."

"In the years when children should be building up good nutrition reserves," she said, "they are tearing down their health by eating on the run, going without breakfast and eating too much sugar."

Mrs. Barnes said diets of many teenagers are low in vitamins and calcium and too high in sugar.

The SIU nutritionist advised against between-meal snacks, which she said may result in overweight and sluggishness.

Modern-Type Windows Called Hazard in Fire

DETROIT (UP) — One of the nation's largest insurance companies has warned against the current architectural trend to high horizontal windows in bedrooms. The company has stopped granting mortgage loans on houses which have only high strip windows in bedrooms because its safety experts claim they constitute a fire hazard. They say occupants can't get out of such rooms fast enough in case of fire. Each bedroom, the company says, must have at least one window at normal height.

The high strip windows have become popular because they permit furniture to be placed against nearly any wall. They also provide more privacy.

Understanding Human Nature Aids Ed Murrow

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — "No one can walk past a house with its blinds up and not look inside," said Edward R. Murrow.

This simple fact of human nature lies behind the popular appeal of Murrow's show Person to Person, which returns to CBS-TV tomorrow evening. With it, of course, returns Murrow, tanned and fit after vacation on his Pawling, N. Y., farm.

He and the shows co-producers—John A. Aaron and Jesse Zousmer—recall that some aimless conversation about walking down streets and looking in lighted houses led to the birth of this program in which cameras pass into the private homes of interesting people. "And," Murrow adds drily, "you don't have to be a peeping Tom to wonder how other people live."

Since 1953 Person to Person has visited 170 homes, two per program. Tomorrow night it adds those of actors Dick Powell and June Allyson in West Los Angeles, Calif., and of photographer Margaret Bourke-White in Darien, Conn. Generals, actors, athletes, business leaders, politicians, artists, a New York red cap and former President Harry Truman—all have welcomed Murrow's cameras in the front door and told him never mind looking through the window.

It's a rare citizen these days who slams the door in Murrow's face. In fact, there are more open doors than the program can ever hope to enter. It was not always thus. In the beginning there were several turndowns. But nearly all those who first said "No" have since come around with an eager "Yes."

BALANCE DUE

OGDEN, Kan. (UP) — The burglar who took four half pints of whiskey from an Ogden liquor store was thirsty and honest—to a point. In place of the missing liquor he left four crumpled $1 bills. But there was no payment for the big window glass he smashed with a rock to gain entrance.

Cooks in Rome Deny Garlic Is Italy's Favorite

ROME (UP) — Rome's top restaurant owners claim they are being viciously maligned by garlic lovers the world over.

The city's leading culinary artists spoke as one man from their spaghetti-steaming kitchens.

They said that garlic fiends, especially in America, have spread the false idea that Italy is a garlic-gobbling nation.

"It's a lopsided ragout and has to stop," said simmering Alfredo di Lelio, famed "King of the Noodles."

Alfredo, now 74, held forth over a heaping plate of garlicless fettuccine. His gray mustache swayed sadly as he thought of the harm garlic lovers were doing to misinform the public.

Alfredo's butter-cheese rich noodles, or fettuccine, have been happily consumed by America's first lady, Mamie Eisenhower.

Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks also munched them back in 1927, and gave Alfredo a golden fork and spoon, inscribed: "To Alfredo, King of the Noodles."

No Garlic At All

There wasn't a garlic clove within a mile of that noodle dish, or in the one Signora Mamie ate, or in her turkey filet or the fresh peas I gave her just in time," said Alfredo.

He explained the "just in time" by adding that peas, to be done right, must be picked, shelled, and rushed to the table within one half hour.

"And she loved the meal," he said.

Giuseppe Ranieri, proprietor of restaurant Ranieri, started by a chef for Napoleon, explained that Italians were not addicted to garlic. Especially married couples and lovers.

"Most of our specialities are dishes without garlic," said Ranieri.

"Italians are not a garlic eating nation," he said.

In the south garlic did dominate in some areas. Many Italians emigrating to the United States took this garlic habit with them, said Ranieri.

Magazine Confused

Giuseppe Pepino, 55, co-owner of another famed restaurant — Alfredo Ali Scrota—added that an American magazine helped confuse Americans.

"It once published a cover filled with pictures of garlic and everyone thought we ate garlic day and night," said Pepino.

"Naturally," he admitted, "there are certain plates that require garlic and you can't do them justice without that strange cousin of the beautiful lily flower."

Among these dishes Pepino included leghorn shrimps (scampi livornese), beefsteak with tomato sauce (filetto di bue alla pizzaiola), oil - garlic spaghetti (spaghetti aglio olio).

Few restaurants in Rome are as famed for their cuisine as Passetto, long a hangout for gourmets in striped morning coats as well as dusty cycling shorts.

"The garlic has all but vanished from our kitchen," said Passetto's owner, Eleuterio Guerini.

"Not only is it hard on romance it also is hard on the liver. Raw it is not difficult to digest, but fried it hits the liver like a load of lead," he said.

RING FROM FRANCE

GREENWICH, Conn. (UP) — Miss Mary M. Feeman was puzzled when she received a letter in French written on official stationery, by the head of the security police in France. A high school French teacher came to her rescue. She translated the letter, which said the gold ring she lost on a recent visit to Paris had been found in a hotel safe.

Steaks Which Peel Next for Kitchen

NEW YORK (UP) — Husbands arriving home for dinner these days may find the little woman in the kitchen — peeling a steak!

For now, fresh frozen meat hermetically sealed in a thin coat of plastic wax is on the market, although to date only in scattered parts of the nation. The company which developed the new packaging says the process is approved by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and that wax - dipped meats will keep for a week or longer under normal refrigeration. The company adds that the meat can be kept in the home freezer "definitely" without getting dark streaks which frequently occur in other wrappings.

JACK WEBB SPEAKING:

More than a year ago we began research on a movie to be called Pete Kelly's Blues.

On July 19th the Technicolor lab delivered the final print. It was a busy thirteen months.

The movie concerns a small jazz band which plays in a Kansas City speakeasy in 1927, so we had to look into 1927. We had to document the story with the accents of the Roaring Twenties: Prohibition, the Bootleg Wars, quick money and jazz. We had to look around and find the right people to do the music. We managed to get a half dozen of the best of the side-men in jazz and last February we got lucky. Peggy Lee and Ella Fitzgerald signed on the same week.

We had two difficult parts to cast: Ivy Conrad, an over-stimulated child of the Flapper Age and Fran McCarg, a brutal symbol of a brutal period. Janet Leigh fit the bill as Ivy and Eddie O'Brien, who had just won an Academy Award, agreed to take on McCarg.

And finally, we had to photograph the movie. We had to use the CinemaScope lens in a way that would suggest the excitement, the restlessness, the supercharged gaiety of 1927.

The movie is ready to be shown. I hope you'll see it — I hope you'll feel that we did a few of the things we set out to do.

Pacific Bastion Life Eased To Spur Enlistments

U.S. Turns Okinawa Into Luxury Base

By REMBERT JAMES
Military Editor, San Diego Union

(Copyright, 1955 by The San Diego Union)

The Defense Department has picked Okinawa to find out whether an American wife will like the military service if she can live with her husband and children in a house with three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The Pentagon hopes she will like it well enough to urge her husband to re-enlist.

Never before has any country tried so hard to make life agreeable for soldiers and airmen and their wives and children, in so primitive and distant an area. The military services are having a bad time with low re-enlistment rates. Many trained men explain their decision to leave the service is caused by their wives' complaints about separation at duty stations, housing and other inconveniences.

Okinawa, of course is the island that the United States took from Japan during 1945 in the last large battle of World War II. Now it is the United States' most important permanent base in the Far East. It is 60 miles long and 10 miles wide. It is halfway between Japan and Formosa, 450 miles off the coast of Communist China almost opposite Shanghai.

THE ARMY HAS 14,000 men, including units that operate atomic artillery, stationed on Okinawa. Part of the Third Marine Division is due soon from Japan. The U S Air Force has 14,000 men on duty there.

The United States is now well past the halfway mark in spending $600,000,000 for military improvements, including housing and hospitals, on Okinawa.

Okinawa was chosen to test the idea that super-good living conditions for families would be a big help in getting re-enlistments as a result of a rather strange combination of happenings. One was the Korean war; another was a typhoon named Gloria; the third was the fact that the U S developed small atomic bombs in 1953 or thereabouts.

That sounds like a series of unconnected facts that have little to do with Okinawa. But go back to 1949:

In January of 1949 Okinawa was about as dull a place as any American could find in the Far East. The trucks, radios, jeeps and other war materials left there in 1945, when plans to invade Japan proved unnecessary, had just about all been shipped away. The island had a small garrison of troops and Air Force men. They lived in Quonset huts. All the military buildings on the island were temporary, jerry-built structures.

THE MEN OF the garrison hated the island and called it "The Rock."

Then, on July 23, at 6 a.m., something happened that changed the island's future. A typhoon named Gloria swept in from the southwest. It blew for 24 hours and its 100-mile-an-hour winds leveled everything above ground on Okinawa — except the Okinawans' thatched-roof huts which stood in sheltered places and leaned with the wind.

The typhoon's destruction forced the Defense Department to start thinking about its plans for Okinawa—would it just accept the idea that periodic typhoons come along and destroy everything above ground, or would it build permanent buildings? How important was Okinawa, anyway?

The department was still thinking about this problem when the Korean War started in 1950. Okinawa turned out to be useful. Two-thirds of the Air Force bombing raids against Korea originated from the island, a development which convinced the Defense Department of Okinawa's value.

THEN ABOUT the time the Korean War ended the United States developed the small, tactical atomic bomb. This bomb can be used on a battlefield and against other limited targets, and military men think it is just about a certainty that the U. S will use it if the Communists start another war involving the United States in Asia.

All of this meant that Okinawa, the best situated U. S base in the Far East, took on even greater permanent value.

The United States started pouring money into Okinawa in a military buildup that included housing intended to wipe out the memory of Okinawa as "The Rock" and make it one of the most desirable posts in the world.

Instead of Quonset huts the Defense Department built concrete houses with broad lawns on wide, winding streets that follow the contours of the hills in the approved American fashion.

Officers and sergeants with families get the same type of quarters—three bedrooms, two baths, a dining room, living room first-grade plumbing, electric denumidifiers for the clothes closets—and all the furnishings except linen and silver.

For this they pay different rentals, according to grade and pay. A sergeant, for example, pays $90.90 a month. This includes water and electricity. Groceries are available at the commissary, or at approved Okinawan stores. Groceries for the average family cost around $100 a month.

THERE ARE 18 movie theaters on the island. There are large modern schools for American personnel, operated by American teachers. The Army is building a new $7,000,000 hospital.

Servants cost $15 a month. The climate is humid, but averages 72 degrees for the year, not much different from Hawaii. There are swimming beaches, rest centers, skeet ranges and horseback-riding facilities.

There are clubs for noncommissioned officers, and clubs for commissioned officers. There are 128 miles of paved roads, some of them four-lane highways. Many Americans have their own cars. If they do not drive, they can hire one of the 12,000 taxis on the island.

But what about the typhoons—have they stopped coming?

No typhoons still hit Okinawa on an average of three a year. But the Americans go inside their new concrete houses, close the doors, get out the candles for the time when the electric power goes off, and settle down to let the typhoon blow itself out.

Is the re-enlistment rate going up? Yes, but there has not been time enough yet for the test to be conclusive. At any rate the Army tour of duty on Okinawa now is 36 months—compared to 16 months in Korea. It is one of the Army's best assignments.

Asia, excluding Russia, has 323,000,000 people.

Turkey, Hams Lead Weekend Food Features

By The Associated Press

Turkeys and smoked hams take over the featured spot in the nation's food stores this weekend.

Smoked hams, whole or halves are attractively priced, and in some stores turkeys will be down around six cents a pound from recent levels.

Fryer chickens will be another popular feature with some markets dropping prices two to six cents a pound from a week ago.

Legs of lamb will be lower in some sections of the country. Another weekend special will be prime ribs of beef.

Egg prices, which have climbed rather sharply in recent weeks, will be lower in most markets. One chain is cutting grade A whites by one to eight cents a dozen in many of its outlets.

Produce men nominate potatoes, onions and eggplant as the outstanding buys of the week. Also recommended are cabbage, carrots, sweet potatoes, cauliflower, peppers, beans and corn. Most of the corn, they add, is of ordinary to fair quality.

Mop Designed To Reach Into Out-of-Way Spots

NEW YORK (UP) — Cleaning those hard-to-reach spots in the home becomes easier with a new blade-thin hand mop of soft, spun cotton.

The mop is designed to slip between closely - quartered equipment such as the stove and refrigerator, behind the piano, over valances and on top of under heavy, hard-to-move pieces of furniture. It also can be used as a wet mop and can be detached from its 30-inch handle for sudsing out.

White printing on black paper is 10.5 less readable than dull black on dull white, says the Better Vision Institute.

Children's New Furniture Gets Grown-Up Look

CHICAGO (UP) — Furniture the children can use after they graduate from the crib until they graduate from college now is the aim of the manufacturers of juvenile furnishings.

Children's furnishings displayed at the summer markets here revealed new twists on the "grown-up" styling that began a few seasons ago.

One of the most practical products was a full-length twin bed with detachable side arms. A matching "builder set" in white and warm brown has chests, tables and shelves, which can be added to as the child needs more room for storage. All are styled along the lines of adult furniture.

Trundle Beds

Another company showed some additions to its "two-tone grown-up" line, notably a two-drawer chest and sliding door cabinet which can fit on top of the chest.

The same firm used fiberglass extensively in its new line of strollers for the younger set.

A "growing up lamp" was displayed by another manufacturer. It's a wall pin-up with a decorated folding yardstick to chart a child's growth.

Trundle beds are replacing bunk beds in children's rooms. Manufacturers say that it's safer to have one bed stored underneath another and ready to pull out than to have the beds stacked.

One maple trundle accommodates a full 74-inch mattress in the lower unit. Another trundle is a compact sleeping study unit for two youngsters in a small bedroom. The footboard is a desk and study area with two drawers.

Picnic Table

Davy Crockett, naturally, reared his influential head in juvenile furniture lines. He left his stamp on a felt base rug for children's rooms, a folding card-play-or-supper table and on several beds.

Another new item was a juvenile picnic table with attached benches in wood and wrought iron. The top of the table opens to become a sand box. In winter the table can be moved indoors and the sandbox used for toy storage.

Scaled-down models of popular adult furniture are increasing in popularity. A number of manufacturers showed pint-sized canvas and wrought-iron "butterfly" and metal or plywood bucket chairs.

LONG RUN

EDINBURG, Tex. (UP) — Edinburg Fire Chief Elbert Sanders claims to have made the longest fire run in the world. Sanders was driving to a firemen's convention in Carthage, Tex.—more than 500 miles from Edinburg—when he noticed a night-time blaze at a filling station. Sanders woke up the owner and helped him put out the fire.

Japanese Reds Shifting Tactics

TOKYO (UP) — The Communist party has shifted from violence to subversion this year in an effort to win Japan.

Evidence of the switch of tactics by Japanese Reds was compiled in a report by the public safety investigation agency entitled "Present Conditions of the Japan Communist Party."

Although violent demonstrations and activities were dropped in 1952 because of the growing hostility of the Japanese people, the complete break with the old ways did not come until the first of this year.

The report pointed out that on Jan. 1, Akahata (Red Flag), a Communist newspaper, printed the following:

"We definitely sever relations with all of the extreme leftist adventures we were guilty of in the past . . ."

The investigation agency showed how the Communist Party refashioned its Marxian logic as the old formula failed in Japan. In 1951, the party interpreted the situation here as Japan "subservient to American imperialism." The violence that followed only antagonized the Japanese people.

Then the Communist strategists began to have doubts if they had really sized things up correctly.

In May, Yoshio Shiga, member of the central directorate of Japan's Communist Party, reinterpreted Japan's position. He said although she was still "semi-occupied" by America, Japan's revolution must not follow the tactics used in a "colony-dependency" nation.

He further said that Japan definitely was a "capitalist," nation. This called for new methods.

The report said that the "military organization" has increasingly lost its importance for the moment. But it warned that the Communists are regrouping and training farmers and laborers while concentrating on boring from within.

Orders have gone out to the 100,000-member Japan Communist Party to oppose Japanese rearmament, encourage the government to follow the "peaceful co-existence" policies fostered by Communist nations and unifying with "Democratic forces" in a common front.

Won't Provide Enough Men

Pentagon Is Doubtful of Reserves Law

By MONTE BOURJAILY JR.

WASHINGTON (NANA) — Some 55,000 young Americans between the ages of 17 and 18-½ are the most that the Army will train or have in training during the first nine months of operations under the new Reserve Forces Act

This is the law which puts into effect the watered down version of the Defense Department's national reserve plan which became law Aug 6

The first 5,000 men will begin training during the three-month period from Oct 1 to Jan 1 This will be an experimental period designed to give the Army the information on which it will go to Congress to ask for enough money to begin to train 8,333 men a month in January, 1956

But there is no guarantee that the Army will be able to train so many. First, the Army's plans are very tentative They depend on getting Defense Department and administration approval to raise the Army's size from the planned 1,027,000 men scheduled to be in khaki on June 30, 1956, to 1,045,000 They also depend on getting enough men to volunteer to spend eight years in active reserve training.

DEFENSE ASKED Congress to permit drafting youngsters for this program. Congress turned this request down Supplying enough men to make the program work thus depends on the efforts of "citizen soldiers," commanders of reserve units whose primary efforts are directed toward making a living in some civilian occupational field

Finally, there is some question that men will find an eight-year military obligation which requires a total of 648 days of either drills or active duty for training spread over the eight-year period more attractive than 730 days of active duty (less 60 days of leave, of payment therefore), followed by 189 days of drill or training duty, spread over a three year period

Add to this the growing realization on the part of most young men today that their chances of being drafted are relatively slim —with a draft call for 18-year-olds at least four years off—and the concern in the pentagon over possible failure of the plan is understandable.

SHOULD THE PLAN work, however, here's how it will be put into effect.

During the first three months, 5,000 volunteers will be assigned to six Army posts for basic training Each post has a quota. If this quota is filled, additional volunteers would be sent to the next nearest post

Men from the Eastern seaboard to a total of 979, will be sent to Fort Jackson, S C Men from the northeastern Mid-West will go to Fort Knox, Ky , to a total of 449 From the Mid-West west of the Mississippi men will go to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo , to a total of 1,073 Men from the South, other than the Atlantic Coast states, will go to Camp Chaffee, Ark , to a total of 1,009 Men from the Pacific Coast , and other Far Western states will go to Fort Ord, Calif , to a total of 979

Volunteers in Army reserve anti-aircraft units will be sent to Fort Bliss, Tex , no matter what part of the country they come from But a limit of 511 is put on the number that Bliss can take

Of the 4,489 being trained away from Fort Bliss, as many as 1 200 will be sent to technical and administrative schools at six additional Army posts for quartermaster, transportation, military police signal, ordnance, medical, and chemical corps training Those going into engineer corps units will be trained in Fort Leonard Wood Training for service in reserve adjutant general and finance corps units will be "on the job" training at the posts where basic training is given

THE SIX MONTHS' training that each volunteer will receive will be broken down into three periods of eight weeks each, with no leave given during the six months, although men will get passes. The first eight weeks will be the same for all 5 000 This is basic training. The second eight weeks will be spent in either "advanced individual training" or in service schools. This is the same as the training now given to draftees and first-hitch regular army volunteers, except for the absence of leave between the two phases

The final eight weeks will be spent in "basic unit training " in which the trainees will be assigned to typical units of the same kind as those in which they volunteered, and to which they will return to serve out the next seven and one-half years of their service tours

If the full-scale program gets under way Jan 1 these same 12 Army posts will be the training sites

The plans listed above are detailed in several Army messages which are already in the hands of local commanders However Army spokesmen emphasize that they are more 'informed guesses" as to what will happen than a firm forecast

The whole RFA program is too new and the Army is too lacking in experience to say positively at this time that there will be no changes from the above.

Three Countries Make Survey of Pacific Area

LA JOLLA, Calif. (UP) — Canada, Japan, and the United States have joined to conduct an oceanographic survey of more than 10,000,000 square miles of the Pacific Ocean this August.

The area to be surveyed stretches from North America to Japan and from the Tropic of Cancer almost to the Bering Strait—about one sixteenth of the earth's total surface.

At least 20 vessels will conduct studies in the various field of oceanography — physical, biological, chemical, meteorological and geological. The results will be used as background for studies of fisheries problems of all three countries

The vast survey was announced by Roger R Revelle, director of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography of La Jolla, Calif.

Still Hovers at Wartime Peaks

Record Farm Output Continues in U.S.

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's farm production was coaxed to new heights during the war years. Today it bestrides the delicate field of foreign affairs like Frankenstein's monster.

Butter, cheese, cotton, rice, wheat—these are unmentionables in polite conversation with certain of America's allies. And for very grave reasons.

Second of a Series

Dumping the huge U. S. surplus in rice and cotton on the world market, for example, could drive Asia and the near Middle East into the Communist camp.

For rice, this is true because of Burma, a faithful friend and staunch ally. Burma is the chief rice supplier in Southeast Asia, Indeed has a surplus of its own, American rice has no place else to go but Southeast Asia.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN if the United States started shipping rice into the area, infringing on Burma's market? The Burmese would be outraged, perhaps driven into trade and tight liaison with rice-henry Red China. The lives and fortunes spent to keep the Reds out of the area would be lost—and possibly all of non-Communist Asia as well.

With cotton, it's principally Egypt, although Mexico and Brazil are concerned, too. The Egyptians are the world's champion growers of fine long staple cotton. It is practically the only thing they export. Dumping the U. S. cotton surplus into Egypt's markets would play havoc with Egypt's economy.

That is intolerable in the cold light of western strategy, leaving all moral considerations aside. Egypt is a key to Arab-Israeli peace and to continued cold-shouldering of Communist attempts to muscle in on the Middle East.

THE MILK-PRODUCING Scandinavian countries might be alienated if American dairy surpluses showed up cheap on the world market. As to wheat, the grain-growing Canadians never cease to fret that America's billion bushel surplus might be dumped on the world market.

How can this five billion dollar monster of U. S. surpluses be tamed before it tramples its owner's hard-won foreign friendships? Where is the solution, immediately and for the long run? What about the Iron Curtain countries?

The Eisenhower administration is reviewing the whole monumental question at this time. It has to, under constant congressional pressure to do something and faced as it is with the changing mood of the cold war.

Indeed, the warm wave flowing from this summer's Geneva summit conference might melt through the East-West trade barriers and thereby bring a solution, for the short run at least. Hardly a week goes by that some member of Congress doesn't propose selling wheat to Russia or dropping it by the bagloads on Red China whether Peiping wants it or not.

MEANWHILE, the government chips away with the tools it has and plans hopefully for the long haul.

Its chief tool for disposing of farm surpluses abroad is public law 480. This permits their sale, barter or give-away to "friendly countries." Russia and Red China are specifically barred. The law would have to be changed to bring them in.

As of last June 30 a total of 21 agreements involving nearly 470 million dollars in goods had been signed with 17 foreign governments under this legislation. To avoid dumping, the amounts are limited and controlled.

A major provision is that sales may be made for foreign currency. This money never reaches the United States, however. It is simply plowed back into economic development of the country, gift of Uncle Sam, or used to pay off U. S. bills, such as for troop camps in Japan.

Total of U. S. Veterans Near 22 Million Mark

WASHINGTON (AP)—There should be 22 million veterans in America by late September or early October, the Veterans Administration (Va) said today.

At the end of July there were 21,921,000 veterans, latest available figures show. This was an increase of 43,000 during July, a big drop from the increases of 96,000 during June, 87,000 during May and 79,000 during April.

The figures do not include the men now in service.

The VA said the average age of all veterans on June 30 was 38.3 years.

VA's veteran population estimate for Ohio as of June 30 was 1,179,000.

Lettuce is the second most popular vegetable in the United States. Americans eat more lettuce per persons than any other vegetable except potatoes.

It Will Take Miracles

In what has been called a "revival - meeting approach," officials of the Eisenhower administration are being urged by Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes to shrink the federal spending rate between now and next June 30.

Thanks to increased revenue, a balanced budget is within reach during the financial year that began last July 1. Spending has increased, too, but not so rapidly as revenue has increased.

Although this justifies happy thoughts about a tax cut, which is inevitable because both parties will want to cut taxes before the 1956 election, a balanced budget with perhaps a substantial surplus to apply against the national debt would be a vindication of everything said by Eisenhower campaigners in 1952.

They said New Dealers and Fair Dealers had been reckless with public money, that they had never tried to reduce the rate of federal spending and on the contrary had been buying phony prosperity with the people's wealth.

It is going to take a "revival - meeting approach" to revive that kind of free-swinging fervor in what is left of 1955 and the first six months of 1956. The same thing has happened to the Eisenhower administration that happens to all administrations.

It has developed new ideas about things it would like to do that cost money. An administration official was describing this to the Associated Press.

"Our people came here and cut down spending," he said. "But then programs came along in each department that they got interested in and began to plug. Their spending estimates have consequently begun to rise."

This is the problem of government spending. When the other fellow is doing the big spending, he is wasting public money. When you are doing it, you are providing essential services. It will take some old-time religion to make it clear that the public can get along without a lot of essential services it has been given for its own good. It will take some religious miracles. A lot of them!

Doing the Best He Can

Harry Truman is a staunch party man; there can be no quarrel about that. He was given the Democratic vice-presidential nomination in 1944 to make sure the presidency would fall into the hands of a staunch party man when Franklin Roosevelt died. Being staunch has been his career.

Truman never shirked his responsibilities as a wheelhorse. Like him or not as a symbol of government, no Democrat of his day has worked harder in behalf of the party organization. At the moment, no one is working harder with less to gain than the man who was tapped for the presidential responsibility in 1944 and now is out of the running for public office.

He has taken on his shoulders the heavy responsibility of trying to make an issue about the Eisenhower administration. It is a thankless job. But by being willing to work at it, Truman is sparing Democrats who may be in line for party nominations next year from wearing themselves out a year in advance.

There is no issue about the Eisenhower administration, as Truman well knows. It is his job to pretend there is, in order to keep the stump warmed up for the presidential hopefuls when they are ready to take over in 1956. He is being a wheelhorse—an organization man—a Democrats' Democrat.

He is being what he never has pretended he isn't—a man who likes the two-party system and believes in working at it.

Inflation Is Normal

The same people who wondered if we would have inflation while the purchasing power of dollars was being nibbled nearly in half after 1940 now are wondering again.

They point to many of the same signs they have seen before — a booming demand for all kinds of goods, putting unusual pressure on the price structure, and an ever-rising trend in wage rates that is keeping consumers of goods abreast of the asking prices.

Once more there is talk of "crucial weeks ahead," of plans afoot in Washington to do this or that about inflation, of over-confidence and inventory stockpiling to beat forthcoming price rises. And once more there is an unanswered question about the problem of inflation.

Why is inflation regarded as an economic emergency when inflation is the only condition that can be called "normal"?

Certainly the United States is going to have inflation. The alternative would be deflation—and no one wants that.

The only question of importance is whether or not inflation is going to have the wild ups and downs that used to be called the "boom-and-bust" cycle.

The purchasing power of dollars dropped from an index point of 236 before World War I to 116 in 1920. It then climbed back to 180 in 1933, when dollars were scarce and the depression was at its worst. By the end of World War II when everything was booming, the purchasing power of dollars had settled back to 130 and now has been stabilized since 1951 at a point just under 90.

This is a sign of inflation. But it is not a sign of fluctuating prices, the thing that used to make inflation dreaded.

Security Fundamental

By David Lawrence

National Safety Takes Precedent Over Individual

Lawrence

Which is more important — the safety of the United States or the continued assurance of a government job to some individual about whom there is a reasonable doubt as to whether a foreign enemy could subject him to pressure and use him to its advantage?

This is the fundamental issue which is overlooked in many investigations and studies being started now to shift the burden of proof and to make it more and more difficult for the detective agencies of the government to fight against clandestine enemies. It isn't the voluntary but the involuntary yielding under pressure which brings trouble to persons themselves innocent yet with ties to relatives behind the iron curtain or with relationships to persons in this country duped by Communist intrigues. Why should the American government take chances on persons with doubtful connections?

The Senate Civil Service subcommittee has decided to give a lot of time to take testimony from those who, while wholly sincere in their belief that a government employe must be protected at all costs, seem to be unmindful of the main purpose of a security program and the enemy's techniques. Today there is a tendency in some quarters to belittle as "farcically remote" or trivial the questions that have to be asked in a security hearing.

THERE IS MUCH talk also of separating "sensitive" and "non-sensitive" positions, as if, once inside a government building, an employe's movements or associations can be regulated with respect to contacts with persons in "sensitive" and "non - sensitive" positions.

Few of the critics probably have read the text of the regulations, for instance, of the secretary of defense. One regulation, which covers all security cases in the armed services, reads as follows:

"An officer or warrant officer of the armed services holds a sensitive position by virtue of his commission or warrant regardless of the duties and responsibilities of the assignment. Likewise, an enlisted member whose qualifications would normally require that he have access to classified information or material will be considered to hold a sensitive position regardless of the duties and responsibilities of his assignment."

One of the many criteria applied in hearing security cases in the armed services requires information about "membership in, affiliation or sympathetic association with any. . .association, movement, group or combination of persons which is totalitarian, fascist, Communist or subversive."

THIS IS NOT ALL. Another criterion is whether there is a "sympathetic association" or a "close continuing association with a person who has engaged in activities or associations" of the type referred to in the regulations. In addition, hearing boards must ask questions to obtain the following:

"Any facts . . . which furnish reason to believe that the individual may be subjected to coercion, influence, or pressure which may cause him to act contrary to the best interests of national security. Among matters which should be considered in this category would be the presence of a spouse, parent, brother, sister, or offspring in a nation, a satellite thereof, or an occupied area thereof, whose interests are inimical to the interests of the United States."

A hullabaloo was raised recently when the executive departments considered instances of government employes with relatives behind the iron curtain or cases where a mother or father had been in the Communist movement.

These cases always awaken public interest and lots of sympathy, but all the background is rarely explained. It usually is inferred that testimony about the loyalty and integrity of the employe is all that's needed to clear an employe

THE REAL QUESTION is whether the United States must take the risk of maintaining in its employ persons who could be subjected to pressure or blackmail.

That's why the President's executive order of April 27, 1953, puts into precise form the experience of the previous administration with security risks by requiring that information be obtained from government employes or applicants which relates to "any criminal, infamous, dishonest, immoral, or notoriously disgraceful conduct, habitual use of intoxicants to excess, drug addiction or sexual perversion."

This shows the necessarily large range that the questions must cover and, since the FBI canvasses friends and neighbors, all the unverified gossip as well as the incontrovertible facts have to be appraised.

As the secretary of defense puts it in his regulation, "the ultimate determination of whether acceptance or retention in the armed services is clearly consistent with the interests of national security must be an over-all common sense determination based on all available information."

Theoretically, as in criminal cases, the individual should be given the benefit of the doubt but, since employment in government is a privilege and not a right, it is the superior right of the government to say, in effect, in a given case that an employe may seem loyal and be devoid of any intention to do anything improper but as long as he has ties which can subject him to pressure or habits that could be taken advantage of by the enemy, there is every reason why the government should protect itself by taking no chances.

THE GREATEST DANGER the American government faces today on the whole security problem comes from those who either are naive and unfamiliar with the operations of the enemy in our midst or who are still obsessed with the idea that a security case in a government department and a criminal case in a court of law are the same thing and must be procedurally handled exactly the same way.

The eleven Communists convicted in Judge Medina's court after a lengthy trial gave a dramatic example of what security-case suspects and their lawyers could do to harass and frustrate governmental operations if the same rules were applied inside the executive agencies.

There has never been any decision of the Supreme Court of the United States which says the rights of an individual supersede those of the government itself in the field of security and national defense. The Bill of Rights protects the government, too.

September Song

By TRUMAN TWILL

This is the year when there are not going to be any melancholy days, the saddest of the year. . .

"The September Song" will have an off-beat lilt in 1955. Not a tear will be shed or a gulp swallowed over wild geese honking in the autumn twilight, the last rose of summer, or the brooding silence that settles over everything when the song birds flee before the oncoming winter.

All mothers this year will skip and dance as they lead their scrubbed and brushed offspring to the educational altar.

There will be no heavy-hearted fathers watching their grownup sons leave for distance schooling, never to be sons again but strangers henceforth, with new interests.

No hollow feelings and gnawing doubts will follow the first nostalgically-numbing whiff of burning leaves.

Tacky, threadbare summer clothes will be tossed into incinerators with derisive chuckles and jeers—good riddance.

No feet will drag when it is time to stow away the porch furniture.

Kids will not give a backward glance as they leave their summer haunts; they will not be aware of the pesky conviction that they are leaving these things behind them forever.

No eyes will blur in September, 1955, at the remembrance of summer loves, summer afternoons and carefree vacations.

It will be good riddance to baseball; swimming, golf, croquet, tennis, horseshoes. May walks, nights under the stars, picnics and hammocks.

No one will be guilty this year of wishing the leaves could stay on the trees, the flowers could stay in the gardens and there could be fresh tomatoes for Christmas dinner.

There will be no foolish sentimentality about power boats skimming over the water, fishermen whipping the likely spots for a strike at twilight, barefoot boys and pig-tailed girls on bicycles.

Nobody will mind getting rid of sun tan, freckles, abbreviated clothing and hot-weather beverages.

It will be jolly fun to return to heavy shoes, overcoats, gloves, overshoes, mufflers, anti-freeze, tire chains, snow shovels, replacements for the summer replacements on television, thermostats, snowdrifts, chilblains, frost-bite and jingle bells.

This is the autumn to make the big switch from melancholy to exuberance. Things can get back to normal. Mosquitoes can go back where they came from and take the flies with them.

Sunburn lotions and poison-ivy goops can be put on the top shelf of the medicine cabinet. Sun glasses can be stored in a desk drawer. All that nonsense is down the drain now—and everybody's glad Yup.

Americans Bounce Back

By James Free

Uncle Sam's self-help loan programs — now swinging into action in flood-disaster areas of the northeast—have a history that proves the ability of Americans to make a comeback after a hard-luck blow.

Over the years, government losses on thousands of loans of this type have been negligible. And the do-it-yourself financial aid programs have served as an invaluable supplement to direct emergency relief operations.

Loans are available to flood-damage victims from two federal agencies.

Those whose homes or business establishments have been damaged may get 3 per cent long-term loans from the Small Business Administration. SBA has a revolving fund of more than 15 million dollars that can be tapped, and the Budget Bureau could authorize a greater amount if demand warrants it. Home loans can run as much as 20 years, business loans up to 10.

FARMERS AND FARM operators may call on SBA or utilize a loan program tailed for their needs by Farmers Home Administration. Loans granted by the latter agency are primarily for replacement of damaged crops, though this necessarily often covers farm buildings. Its present loan reserve of more than 29 million dollars is available on the same 3 per cent long-term basis as SBA loans.

Both programs are designed to help the disaster victim whose assets have been wiped out to the extent that he cannot get a loan through regular bank or commercial channels.

If past records are any sign, a vast majority of disaster loans yet to be made to sufferers from the recent floods will be paid back on schedule and in full.

SBA HAS BEEN making disaster loans only a little over a year, so its experience in repayment is not yet long enough to be significant. But so far it notes excellent repayment rates on its more than 1,300 outstanding SBA disaster loans totaling more than 9 million dollars. Of that amount, $2,800,000 went to 376 victims of Hurricane Hazel last year, and $2,000,000 to 394 victims of earlier 1954 hurricanes Carol and Edna.

There seems to be good reason to assume that SBA will have as good luck on repayment as did the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which handled this type of disaster loan from the 1930's to June 30, 1954. RFC granted some 30,000 disaster loans for a total of more than 29 million dollars and its collection losses were less than 5 per cent.

The Farmers Home Administration began its disaster loans during the 81st Congress only a few years ago. It has already been paid back 90 million of the 252 million dollars lent out, with a mere $247,000 written off as bad debt. That's only a small fraction of 1 per cent loss.

Enemies Become Allies

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON

The cold war with Russia and Red China has grabbed history by the tail and turned it around.

This country's driving urge — only 10 years ago, at war's end—was to keep Germany and Japan disarmed forever. There was even talk here of turning Germany into a pastureland, just to be sure.

That feeling slowly went into reverse as this country's worries about Russia increased and Red China became a threat in Asia.

The United States became the strongest advocate of a rearmed West Germany. The former enemy is now in the process of building an army—presently limited to 500,000 men—and joining its old foes in the Atlantic Alliance.

—:—

ONCE AGAIN this ironic reversal of history was highlighted yesterday: Secretary of State Dulles and Japanese Foreign Minister Shigemitsu issued a statement here on Japan's determination to rearm, with American blessing and urging.

From the American viewpoint—with its eyes fastened on the strength of Red China—Japan isn't rearming fast enough.

The American zeal of early post-war days to force Japan to stay peaceful was shared by Japanese. They wrote into their constitution —under American guidance—a determination to stay unarmed.

That guarantee has become a little awkward now.

Japan has been protected from attack by American troops, planes and ships stationed in and around Japan. Eventually this country wants to withdraw its own forces and let the Japanese defend themselves.

UNDER AMERICAN prodding the Japanese are building an army, but slowly. But because of the constitutional prohibition against a Japanese military force, the army being put together now is called a "security force."

It could be called an army, its right name, if the constitution were changed. That may be done in time. But a change in the constitution requires a two-thirds vote in both houses of Parliament and a majority vote by the people.

There are two main political parties in Parliament—Shigemitsu's Democrats and the Liberals—but neither has a majority and therefore neither can supply the two-thirds vote necessary to amend the constitution.

The Socialists, of left and right, are against rearmament. So are the Communists. If the Democrats and Liberals merge, as they may, they will have a majority but will still be 13 seats short of two thirds.

DULLES AND Shigemitsu talked here yesterday, the last day of the foreign minister's visit, of when Japan would be strong enough to defend itself and the American troops in Japan, now 100,000, could be withdrawn.

That is some distance away. The Japanese have about 150,000 troops in their ground forces now. Shigemitsu talked of increasing them to about 180,000 by 1958.

American officials look upon 180,000 as too little and think that, before Japan has a sufficient defense force, it should have 350,000. Shigemitsu promised Japan would do its best. It expects to have 1,300 planes by 1960

Great Horn Tooters

With cities all over America stuffing their municipal ears and wishing for a solution to the automobile horn-tooting problem, a New York special committee has come up with a decision that it can best be curbed by an "educational program."

Never has education been shoved up against such a task. Fancy trying to educate the American motorist in the matter of keeping quiet when he is being delayed thirty seconds, crowded a half inch on a four-lane highway or not being treated as a VIP when in motion!

THE AVERAGE AUTOIST is a tooter by instinct, impulse, preference and habit. He toots at old ladies, dogs, birds, turtles, shadows, breeze-blown papers, falling leaves, kids and spots before his eyes.

He believes a seat behind the wheel automatically labels him "Perishable, Do Not Delay," entitles him to preferential treatment at all times, and confers upon him the importance of Hurricane Carol, Hook & Ladder Company No. 8, all ambulance services and the police department escort for a visiting celebrity. He toots when he starts out, toots under way and toots to indicate he has arrived home with his tooter still working.

He is beyond education and co-operation. Anybody announcing that he will be educated in restraint, courtesy and common sense is just adding to the noise.

MOST DRIVERS are "horn morons." They believe the horn is mightier than the sword, the pen and the Book of Etiquette. They toot not only at today's situation but at sudden memories of yesterday's interferences. They will endure any and all defects in the auto as long as the horn is in good shape (There are autoists who even turn in the old horn each year out of a fear it might be losing power.)

As a matter of fact the auto industry owes its growth to the horn. The auto would never have become popular had the horn been left out. Hank Ford got nowhere with his early car until he put a big, bulbous, hand pressure horn on it. Other early auto builders sold few models until they began equipping cars with even noisier devices. Suddenly a public that had been indifferent to the auto began crying, "This is it" and developed an obsession for making unnecessary disturbances. Never before had people in the mass been afforded an opportunity to act like children, show defiance for fellow creatures and make other people jump.

This privilege had been limited to the rich. They had tallyhos with bugles. Suddenly the invention of a motor car made it possible for people in the low brackets to creat a disturbance.

In a few years the auto became intensely popular. People said they wanted an auto just to go out into the great open spaces. Nonsense! The real attraction was horn - tooting. (Did you ever hear of a man enjoying an auto trip WITHOUT A HORN?)

Pa Knickerbocker's idea of educating the autoing public to pipe down and toot only when it is necessary will get nowhere. The educators all have horns and will be tooting worse than the pupils.

Businessmen Speculate on Future Trend

Experts See Continuing Rise in Prices

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Plain and fancy soothsaying as to the course of business — and especially of prices —pops up today.

Industry and trade are rounding the stretch of a rip-snorting year. The calendar says summer has three weeks to run. But most business men think of fall starting with Labor Day.

The modest predictions today concern the prospects of another go-round of inflation in the months ahead — and most (but far from all) seem to think price hikes likely.

The fancier ones try to project the economy over the coming 10 years —and here, too, rising prices are often forecast, but again with notable dissenters.

HIGHER COSTS of industrial materials have captured the headlines this summer. Weakening prices of farm products — and lower farm incomes — are political and economic worry spots.

But looking beyond these month-by-month fluctuations, and the fact that commodity prices usually rise at this turn of the season, some think they discern a long-term trend toward more inflation. They foresee a gradual rise in prices of the things the manufacturer buys and of goods that make up the consumer's cost of living.

Three-fourths of the 449 industrial purchasing agents polled by the trade magazine Purchasing see a generally inflationary trend under way in industry. And more than half expect their own company's products to be prices higher six months from now. About half blame higher labor costs and the others higher material costs.

LONG-TERM guesses on whither the economy is going have been popping up frequently of late. One out today by the Research Institute of America Inc. projects the economy 10 years ahead.

The institute predicts "prices will rise at least 10 to 15 per cent in the next 10 years." And it adds the gloomy opinion: "prices of food, clothing housing in particular will rise—and they take up the largest part of the consumer's pay."

Political trends, as much as economic ones, are blamed by the institute. It doubts if pay-as-you-go goverment financing is yet in sight. Deficit financing is considered inflationary, although the degree varies with circumstances.

And the institute believes that the government, whenever unemployment starts to rise, will resort to pump priming of inflationary nature.

THE INSTITUTE further believes that "neither political party will, over the long run, have sufficient courage to clamp down hard on a boom that may threaten to get out of hand."

Finally, it foresees the unions obtaining higher wages over the next 10 years, with productivity not rising fast enough to keep prices from being pushed higher.

Many economists don't share these views. They cite a number of factors tending to hold prices over the long run. For one, keen competition will force factories to absorb increased costs. For another, better tools and more efficient plants will produce more goods per man-hour of labor and thus help to hold down costs.

A third factor is consumer resistance to price hikes. And a fourth, is the belief the government will move to curb inflation.

Stocky Scout

RED OAK, Iowa (AP) — John Hamilton, a 14-year-old Eagle Scout, wanted to go to the Boy Scout Jamboree, but he had no funds for the trip.

So John, with the assistance of Attorney John F. Boeye, incorporated himself and sold 30 shares of stock in the "John Hamilton Corp." at $10 each, making a total of $300. John expects to have all the stock "bought up" either through work or cash, in three years.

Egg Moroccans On in Rebellion

Reds Add to French Trouble in Africa

Nationalist rioting in colonial territories draws Communists as honey draws a bear. Strife-torn North Africa offers a fertile field for Communists to plant their seeds of hatred and destruction. In this article John K. Cooley, now covering North Africa for NANA, describes how the Reds are operating in Morocco.

By JOHN K. COOLEY

CASABLANCA (NANA) — To what extent is world communism participating in the North African rebellion against France, and what are its chances of eventually winning control of this rebellion—and of North Africa? Upon the answers to these questions depend the future of the billion - dollar American bases in Morocco and the entire role of North Africa in the world strategic picture

France, which has already had to pull one NATO division out of Europe to reinforce her position in North Africa, is now sending new reinforcements at the battalion and regimental level, almost every week. This has already weakened the defenses of Europe, and thus strengthened the Communist hand there.

Indications are that Communist influence is growing, slowly but surely, in French Africa as a whole. Nowhere, however, has it reached the stage where a Communist-led movement like that of Ho-Chi Minh in Indochina could take control of native rebellion. And its growth can probably be checked, provided the French can act in time to end their own disagreements on North Africa and to promulgate needed reforms.

SOVIET LEADERS have had an eye on strategic Morocco since 1920. It was then that Stalin wrote, "We are in favor of the separation of India, Arabia, Egypt, Morocco and other colonies from the (World War I) entente, for here separation implies the liberation of these oppressed countries from imperialism . . . thus strengthening the position of revolution."

The "Moroccan" Communist party, which was not formed until 1944, was and still is composed largely of Frenchmen, especially of labor organizers of the French trade unions who have come from France to fish in troubled waters. Its three chief founders, Henri Lafaye, Michel Mazella and Leon Sultan, were all Frenchmen. Its membership probably never exceeded 500—although the total population of French Morocco is now about 10,000,000—and this was sharply reduced when the party, like the Moroccan nationalist parties, was effectively outlawed by Resident General Guillaume in December 1952. The best evidence is that its card-carrying members now include about 250 Frenchmen and perhaps 20 or 30 Moroccans, who act mainly as couriers and who translate directives into Arabic, then disseminate them.

The fact is that the materialistic concepts upon which communism is founded are so diametrically opposed to the teachings of the Moslem religion that very few Moroccans, even the most fanatical nationalists, will have anything to do with it. This has not stopped the party from forming its own terrorist cells, lending propaganda support to the nationalists and trying to infiltrate their organizations in various guises.

NATIONALIST opposition to communism, voiced frequently by Sultan Sidi Mohammed V before his fateful exile in August 1953, is down in black and white. In the pact concluded in Tangiers on April 9, 1951 between four principal Moroccan nationalist parties —the Istiqlal; the Islah (national reform) party, which operates in Spanish Morocco; the Democratic Independence party and the Unity and Independence party of Tangier—a clause binds the signatories "not to accept the constitution of any united front with the Moroccan Communists."

"Islam and Marx, like oil and water, do not mix," a young Moroccan nationalist here said, "but when an entire people grows desperate, a time comes when they will accept help from wherever it may come." Most Moroccans deny that this time has arrived, but Communist support for the return of Mohammed V has undoubtedly tempted many very strongly to accept just such a "united front."

When the American base projects were begun in Morocco in 1951, the rigidity of the world Communist line proved very embarrassing for local Reds. In line with Moscow's orders, they had to turn their propaganda guns against "the new imperialistic plans of America to establish aggressive bases on African soil," as their propaganda put it at the time This antagonized many Moroccans, who were and are strongly pro-American, and who were generally very glad that the Americans, whom they had first seen at the time of the Allied landings of November 1942, were coming back again.

RECENTLY THE Communists here have been generally silent about the 20,000 Americans now in Morocco and have concentrated on the French. At least two terrorist organizations, the "Black Hand" and "Black Crescent," upon whom some French circles place a large share of the blame for recent uprisings and disorders, are apparently acting independently of the responsible Istiqlal and other nationalist leaders, who have called for calm. Pamphlets and other evidence now suggest that both "Black Hand" and "Black Crescent" have probably been infiltrated by Communist cells — especially in Casablanca where thousands of poverty stricken Moroccans have come from the countryside in the vain hope of finding work, and who are ideal recruits for terrorism.

These cells have received steady encouragement from the Communist capitals, especially in the broadcasts of Radio Budapest. Some arms may have reached them from Czechoslovakia via Milan and Tangier—Italian police and the Interpol organization are reportedly investigating this.

Nationalist and short-term Communist aims coincide at so many points that despite nationalist embarrassment at Red aid and frequent disavowal of it, a sort of de facto cooperation does exist. This is especially true in the economic field, where both groups are interested in wrecking French business interests here, such as the tobacco and sugar monopolies, through rigidly enforced boycotts and through sabotage and violence whenever possible.

MURRAY D. LINCOLN,
President, Nationwide Insurance, speaks for the policyholders

This is a big day in my life

When our policyholders asked me to tell you about our new name, and the reasons behind it, it meant that they wanted the idea which we had worked on together for about half a life-time to be offered to people everywhere.

The idea that couldn't stop growing

It was 29 years ago that a group of Ohio farmers conceived the idea that people working together could solve their own problems. At that time our need was for low-cost auto insurance. With borrowed money we started our own company, Farm Bureau Mutual Automobile Insurance Company.

It won't work, experts warned us. But the idea did work. Auto rates for Ohio farmers insured with us dropped as much as 40%. By working together, we had helped ourselves.

We applied the same idea to fire and to life insurance. Word got around. City people asked to join our group. Our neighbors in West Virginia invited us in. Then Maryland, Delaware, Vermont and North Carolina.

Today, our original handful of policyholders has grown to more than two million people in 13 states.

1955—year of decision

Most of these people like our way of doing business and those who have moved out of our area write back to ask why they can't buy our insurance in their states.

But in some of these other states there are already "Farm Bureau" companies. "Then why not," asked our Advisory Committee of Policyholders, "change our name so that we can operate nationwide?"

We take their advice

Well, we took that advice—like we've taken the advice of our Policyholder Advisory Committee before. For example, they were the ones who suggested the bridal policy that may be used to pay wedding expenses. They passed approval on "package" policies which provide protection for the whole family . . . and the budget plan to ease premium payments.

Now our Policyholder Advisory Committee has helped us make the decision that the idea of people working together shall not stop growing. The Committee has approved our becoming Nationwide in name just as for years we have been nationwide in claims service.

So today the name Farm Bureau Insurance is changed to Nationwide Insurance.

I believe it's a wise decision. I hope you agree. Please write direct to me and tell me how you feel about it. Meanwhile, let me give you my personal guarantee that Nationwide Insurance will never forget the people who made it possible, never change from its original idea of people working together to serve their common needs.

Under our new name everyone will get the same benefits they now enjoy under our present insurance policies. And at the same time we are working on new kinds of policies which many of our policyholders have asked for. Your Nationwide representative will be the same straight-from-the-shoulder advisor you've learned to count on. The big difference is that every one of our policyholders will have a stake in a business that is continuing to expand its sales service, state-by-state, until it becomes Nationwide.

An invitation to you

I've always held the idea that when you really want to find out the answers to people's needs, just go ask the people. That's why we have the Policyholder Advisory Committees. Representative policyholders are chosen by our agents in more than 300 districts. These policyholders then elect representatives to a regional and then a Company-wide Advisory Committee which meets annually in Columbus. Here our policyholders tell us what their real needs are and suggest ways for us to fulfill those needs. If you'd like to participate in one of these meetings—or if you're not already a policyholder and think this is the kind of company you'd like to deal with—just call your Nationwide representative. A warm welcome awaits you!
